CHAPTER I. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Section 1-1-101. Short Title—Contents of the Code—Effect of Captions

A. Sections 1-1-101 through 1-9-122 of this Title shall be known and may be cited as the “Choctaw Nation Children’s Code.”

B. All statutes hereinafter enacted and codified in this Title shall be considered and deemed part of the Choctaw Nation Children’s Code.

C. Articles, chapters, and part captions are part of the Choctaw Nation Children’s Code, but shall not be deemed to govern, limit, or in any manner affect the scope, meaning, or intent of the provisions of any chapter or part of this Code.

D. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to adoption proceedings and actions to terminate parental rights which do not involve a petition for deprived status of the child. Such proceedings and actions shall be governed by the Choctaw Nation Adoption Code.

Section 1-1-102. Legislative Intent and Purpose

A. Parents have a natural, legal, and moral right, as well as a duty, to care for and support their children, and such rights are protected by federal and tribal laws. To that end, it is presumed that the best interests of a child are ordinarily served by leaving the child in the custody of the parents, who are expected to have the strongest bond of love and affection and to be best able to provide a child those needed qualities that make a child’s life safe and secure. Nevertheless, this presumption may be rebutted where there is evidence of abuse or neglect or threat of harm;

1. A child has a right to be raised by the mother and father of the child as well as a right to be raised free from physical and emotional abuse or neglect. When it is necessary to remove a child from a parent, the child is entitled to a permanent home and to be placed in the least restrictive environment to meet the needs of the child; and

2. Because the tribe has an interest in its present and future citizens as well as a duty to protect those who, because of age, are unable to protect themselves, it is the policy of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma to provide for the protection of children who have been abused or neglected and who may be further threatened by the conduct of persons responsible for the health, safety, and welfare of such children. To this end, where family circumstances threaten the safety of a child, the tribe’s interest in the welfare of the child takes precedence over the natural right and authority of the parent to the extent that it is necessary to protect the child and assure that the best interests of the child are met.

B. It is the intent of the Tribal Council that the Choctaw Nation Children’s Code provide the foundation and process for tribal intervention into the parent-child relationship whenever the circumstances of a family threaten the safety of a child and to properly balance the interests of the parties stated herein. To this end, it is the purpose of the laws relating to children alleged or found to be deprived to:

1. Intervene in the family only when necessary to protect a child from harm or threatened harm;

2. Provide expeditious and timely judicial and agency procedures for the protection of the child;

3. Preserve, unify, and strengthen the family ties of the child whenever possible when in the best interests of the child to do so;

4. Recognize that the right to family integrity, preservation, or reunification is limited by the right of the child to be protected from abuse and neglect;

5. Make reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for the removal of a child from the home and make reasonable efforts to return the child to the home unless otherwise prescribed by the Choctaw Nation Children's Code;

6. Recognize that permanency is in the best interests of the child;

7. Ensure that when family rehabilitation and reunification are not possible, the child will be placed in an adoptive home or other permanent living arrangement in a timely fashion; and

8. Secure for each child the permanency, care, education, and guidance as will best serve the spiritual, emotional, cultural, mental, and physical health, safety, and welfare of the child.

C. Whenever it is necessary for a child to be placed outside the home pursuant to the Choctaw Nation Children's Code, it is the intent of the Tribal Council that:

1. Each child shall be assured the care, guidance, and supervision in a permanent home or foster home that will serve the best interests of the child including, but not limited to, the development of the moral, emotional, cultural, spiritual, mental, social, educational, and physical well-being of the child;

2. When a child is placed in foster care, the foster parent may consider the child as part of the family;

3. Whenever possible siblings shall be placed together and when it is not possible, efforts shall be made to preserve the relationships through visitation and other methods of communication; and

4. Permanent placement is achieved as soon as possible.

D. A foster parent shall be considered an essential participant with regard to decisions related to the care, supervision, guidance, rearing, and other foster care services to the child.

E. It is the intent of the Tribal Council that the paramount consideration in all proceedings within the Choctaw Nation Children's Code is the best interests of the child.

F. None of the provisions contained within the Choctaw Nation Children's code shall be deemed to alter the application and/or implementation of the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, or any of its state counterparts, in proceedings in state courts.

G. It is the intent of the Tribal Council that the Choctaw Nation's placement preferences be followed in any adoptive placements or foster care or pre-adoptive placements as follows:

1. Adoptive placements preference shall be given, in absence of good cause to the contrary, to placement with:

- a. a biological parent;
- b. a member of the child's extended family;
- c. other members of the child's tribe; or
- d. members of another tribe; and

2. A child accepted for foster care or pre-adoptive placement shall be placed in reasonable proximity to the child's home, in the least restrictive family-like setting that can provide for the child's needs. In any such placement, a preference shall be given, absent good cause to the contrary, to:

- a. a biological parent;
- b. a member of the child's extended family;
- c. a foster home licensed by the Choctaw Nation;

d. a foster home licensed or approved by another Indian Tribe; (e) an Indian foster home licensed or approved by a non-Indian licensing authority.

Section 1-1-103. Jurisdiction—Transfers to and from other Courts

A. Except as otherwise provided by law, the courts of the Choctaw Nation shall have exclusive jurisdiction over Indian children domiciled in Indian Country within the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma in proceedings provided for in this Title unless such jurisdiction is otherwise vested in a state or federal court by operation of federal law. In such an instance, the Choctaw Nation will have concurrent jurisdiction. Where an Indian child is a ward of a tribal court, the Indian tribe shall retain exclusive jurisdiction, notwithstanding the residence or domicile of the child. The court will have concurrent jurisdiction over proceedings involving an Indian child who does not reside and is not domiciled within Indian Country in the Choctaw Nation:

- 1. concerning any child in need of supervision;
- 2. concerning any child who is delinquent, neglected, or dependent;

3. concerning any transfer proceeding to or from a court of another sovereign in a children's case;

4. to determine the legal custody of any child, or to appoint a guardian of the person, or legal custodian of any child who comes within the jurisdiction of the Choctaw Nation;

5. for the issuance of orders of support of children;

6. to determine the parentage of a child, and to make an order of support in connection therewith;

7. for the adoption of a person of any age;

8. for judicial consent to the marriage, employment, or enlistment of a child, when such consent is required by law; and

9. for the treatment of commitment of a mentally ill or developmentally disabled child who comes within the jurisdiction of the Choctaw Nation; but

10. not in proceedings between only the legal and/or biological parents of a child concerning custody.

B. The Court may issue temporary orders providing for protection, support, or medical or surgical treatment as it deems in the best interest of any child concerning whom a petition has been filed prior to adjudication or disposition of his case.

C. Nothing in this section shall deprive the court of jurisdiction to appoint a guardian for a child or of jurisdiction to determine the legal custody of a child upon a writ of habeas corpus or when the question of legal custody is incidental to the determination of a cause in the court.

D. Where a custody award has been made in the court in a dissolution of marriage action or another proceeding, the court may take jurisdiction in a case involving the same child if he or she is or is alleged to be dependent or neglected, or otherwise comes within the jurisdiction set forth herein.

E. Pursuant to the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. § 1911 B., any state court shall transfer to the District Court of the Choctaw Nation any proceeding for the foster care placement of, or termination of parental rights to, any Indian child who is a member of, or eligible for membership in the Choctaw Nation, absent good cause to the contrary or an objection by either parent. These provisions shall also apply to transfers from other tribal courts where an Indian child is a member of or eligible for membership in the Choctaw Nation. Such transfers shall be subject to the Choctaw Nation's right to declination.

F. The court shall determine whether the transfer to the jurisdiction of the Choctaw Nation would be detrimental to the best interests of the child in a transfer hearing initiated by the Choctaw Nation after the order of transfer is received by the court clerk. In making such determination, the court may consider:

1. whether the child, or the family of the child, will be in need of special services for physical or mental disease or defect, which the tribe and its resources are unable to adequately provide;
2. if transfer is tendered prior to adjudication, whether the witnesses necessary to adjudicate the case will be available. If the witnesses will probably not appear, the court should decline to accept the transfer until after the adjudication is complete; and
3. any other matters which may adversely affect the ability of the Choctaw Nation to provide treatment or necessary services to the family.

G. A court transferring a case to the jurisdiction of the Choctaw Nation under subsection A of this section shall transmit all documents and legal and social records, or certified copies thereof, to the district court, which shall proceed with the case as if the petition has been originally filed or the adjudication had been originally made in the Choctaw Nation. Transfer cases shall be assigned a court case number as in other cases.

H. The courts of the Choctaw Nation are authorized to transfer any case involving a child arising in the Choctaw Nation to the courts of the child's Indian tribe when said child is not a member or eligible for membership in the Choctaw Nation, or to the courts of the state where the child is a resident or is domiciled if the child is a non-Indian, upon the petition of the prosecutor, either parent of the child, a custodian, or guardian of the child, the child's tribe, or an appropriate official of the state where the child resides or is domiciled.

I. In making such transfers the court must consider:

1. the best interests of the child;
2. any special needs or mental or physical diseases or defects of the child and of his or her family, and the ability of the receiving jurisdiction to meet those needs;
3. if transfer is requested prior to adjudication, whether witnesses necessary to the adjudication can attend in the receiving jurisdiction;
4. emotional, cultural, and social ties of the child and his or her family; and
5. the likelihood that the child and his or her family would return to the Choctaw Nation within a reasonable time and come before the court again.

J. Upon entering an order transferring a case as provided in this section, the court shall serve a certified copy of the order of transfer, the legal case file, and any social or police reports concerning the child's case to the court clerk of the receiving jurisdiction by certified mail, return receipt requested. The court may retain physical custody of the child pending an order or notice of acceptance from the receiving jurisdiction, and upon receiving such order or notice, may close the case file and dismiss the case subject to any necessary order for the protection of the child until completion of physical transfer to the receiving jurisdiction.

Section 1-1-104. Enforcement Authority

The prosecutor and any other law enforcement official having jurisdiction shall have the authority to bring civil actions against any person, officer or department, board, commission or other entity, to enforce the provisions of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code, or to enforce any of the laws of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma protecting or applying in any way to a child removed from the custody of the lawful parent of the child by a disposition order of the court.

2. The Department shall forward a report of its assessment or investigation and findings to any prosecutor's office which may have jurisdiction to file a petition pursuant to Section 1-4-902 of this Title.

B. 1. If, upon receipt of a report alleging abuse or neglect or during the assessment or investigation, the Department determines that:

a. the alleged perpetrator is someone other than a person responsible for the child's health, safety, or welfare, and

b. the alleged abuse or neglect of the child does not appear to be attributable to failure on the part of a person responsible for the child's health, safety, or welfare to provide protection for the child,

c. the Department shall immediately make a referral, either verbally or in writing, to the appropriate local law enforcement agency for the purpose of conducting a possible criminal investigation.

2. After making the referral to the law enforcement agency, the Department shall not be responsible for further investigation unless:

a. the Department has reason to believe the alleged perpetrator is a parent of another child, not the subject of the criminal investigation, or is otherwise a person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of another child,

b. notice is received from a law enforcement agency that it has determined the alleged perpetrator is a parent of or a person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of another child not the subject of the criminal investigation, or

c. the appropriate law enforcement agency requests the Department, in writing, to participate in the investigation. If funds and personnel are available, as determined by the Director of the Department or a designee, the Department may assist law enforcement in interviewing children alleged to be victims of physical or sexual abuse.

C. 1. Any law enforcement agency receiving a referral as provided in this section shall provide the Department with a copy of the report of any investigation resulting from a referral from the Department.

2. Whenever, in the course of any criminal investigation, a law enforcement agency determines that there is cause to believe that a child may be abused or neglected by reason of the acts, omissions, or failures on the part of a person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of the child, the law enforcement agency shall immediately contact the Department for the purpose of an investigation.

Section 1-2-103. Judicial Request for Investigation of Criminally Injurious Conduct

A judge of the district court may request an investigation be conducted by the Choctaw Nation Tribal Police or other law enforcement agency in cases where the court reasonably believes that criminally injurious conduct including, but not limited to, physical or sexual abuse of a child has occurred.

Section 1-2-104. Immunity from Civil or Criminal Liability

A. Any, who, in good faith and exercising due care, reports suspected child abuse or neglect, or who allows access to a child by persons authorized to investigate a report concerning the child shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed. Any such participant shall have the same immunity with respect to participation in any judicial proceeding resulting from such report.

B. For purposes of any proceeding, civil or criminal, the good faith of any person in making a report pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-2-101 of this Title shall be presumed.

C. A child advocacy center that is accredited by the National Children's Alliance, and the employees thereof, who are acting in good faith and exercising due care shall have immunity from civil liability that may be incurred or imposed through participation in the investigation process and any judicial proceeding resulting from the investigation process.

Section 1-2-105. Prompt Investigation of Child Abuse or Neglect - Health Records - Written Report - Temporary Restraining Order

A. 1. Any employee of the Department of Children and Family Services receiving a child abuse or neglect report shall promptly respond to the report by initiating an investigation of the report or an assessment of the family in accordance with priority guidelines established by the Department, or by referring the report to such other tribal agency or department or agency of the State of Oklahoma for appropriate investigation. The Department may prioritize reports of alleged child abuse or neglect based on the severity and immediacy of the alleged harm to the child. The Department shall adopt a priority system pursuant to rules promulgated by the Department of Children and Family Services. The primary purpose of the investigation or assessment shall be the protection of the child.

2. If an investigation or assessment conducted by the Department in response to any report of child abuse or neglect shows that the incident reported was the result of the reasonable exercise of parental discipline involving the use of ordinary force, including, but not limited to, spanking, switching, or paddling, the investigation or assessment will proceed no further and all records regarding the incident shall be expunged.

B. 1. The investigation or assessment shall include a visit to the home of the child, unless there is reason to believe that there is an extreme safety risk to the child or worker, or it appears that the referral has been made in bad faith. The visit shall include an interview with, and examination of, the subject child and may be conducted at any reasonable time and at any place including, but not limited to, the child's school. The Department shall notify the person responsible for the health, safety, and welfare of the child that the child has been interviewed at a school. The investigation or assessment may include an interview with the parents of the child or any other person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of the child and an interview with, and examination of, any child in the home.

2. The investigation or assessment may include a medical, psychological, or psychiatric examination of any child in the home. If admission to the home, school, or any place where the child may be located cannot be obtained, then the district court having jurisdiction, upon application by the prosecutor and upon cause shown, shall order the person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of the child, or the person in charge of any place where the child may be located, to allow entrance for the interview, the examination, and the investigation or assessment. If the person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of the child does not consent to a medical, psychological, or psychiatric examination of the child that is requested by the Department, the district court having jurisdiction, upon application by the prosecutor and upon cause shown, shall order the examination to be made at the times and places designated by the court.

3. The investigation or assessment may include an inquiry into the possibility that the child or a person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of the child has a history of mental illness. If the person responsible for the child's health, safety, or welfare does not allow the Department to have access to behavioral health records or treatment plans requested by the Department, which may be relevant to the alleged abuse or neglect, the district court having jurisdiction, upon application by the prosecutor and upon good cause shown, shall by order allow the Department to have access to the records pursuant to terms and conditions prescribed by the court.

4. a. If the court determines that the subject of the behavioral health records is indigent, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent that person at the hearing to obtain behavioral health records.

b. A person responsible for the child's health, safety, or welfare of the child is entitled to notice and a hearing when the Department seeks a court order to allow a psychological or psychiatric examination or access to behavioral health records.

c. Access to behavioral health records does not constitute a waiver of confidentiality.

5. The investigation of a report of sexual abuse or serious physical abuse or both sexual abuse and serious physical abuse shall be conducted, when appropriate and possible, using a multidisciplinary team approach as provided by Section 1-9-102 of this Title. Law enforcement and the Department shall exchange investigation information.

C. 1. Every physician or surgeon making a report of abuse or neglect as required by this section or examining a child to determine the likelihood of abuse or neglect and every hospital or related institution in which the child was examined or treated shall provide copies of the results of the examination, or copies of the examination on which the report was based, and any other clinical notes, x-rays, photographs, and other previous or current records relevant to the case to law enforcement officers conducting a criminal investigation into the case, and to employees of the Department conducting an assessment or investigation of alleged abuse or neglect in the case.

2. As necessary in the course of conducting an assessment or investigation, the Department may request and obtain, without a court order, copies of all prior medical records of a child including, but not limited to, hospital records, medical, and dental records. The physician-patient privilege shall not constitute grounds for failure to produce such records.

D. If, before the assessment or investigation is complete, the Department determines that immediate removal of the child is necessary to protect the child from further abuse or neglect, the Department shall recommend that the child be taken into custody.

E. The Department shall make a complete written report of the investigation. The investigation report, together with its recommendations, shall be submitted to the prosecutor's office. Reports of assessment recommendations shall be submitted to prosecutors.

F. The Department, where appropriate and in its discretion, shall identify prevention and intervention-related services available in the community and arrange for such services to be provided to the family when an investigation or assessment indicates the family would benefit from such services, or the Department may provide such services directly. The Department shall document in the record its attempts to provide, or arrange for the provision of, voluntary services and shall determine within sixty (60) days whether the family has accessed such services. If the family refuses voluntary services or does not access such services, and it is determined by the Department that child's surroundings endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the child, the Department may recommend that the child be placed in protective or emergency custody or that a petition be filed.

G. If the Department has reason to believe that a person responsible for the health, safety, and welfare of the child may remove the child from the tribal jurisdiction before the investigation is completed, the Department may request the prosecutor to file an application for a temporary restraining order in the District Court of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma without regard to continuing jurisdiction of the child. Upon cause shown, the court may enter a temporary restraining order prohibiting the parent or other person from removing the child from the tribal jurisdiction pending completion of the assessment or investigation.

H. The Director of the Department or designee may request an investigation be conducted by the Choctaw Nation Tribal Police or other law enforcement agency in cases where the Department reasonably believes that criminally injurious conduct including, but not limited to, physical or sexual abuse of a child has occurred.

Section 1-2-106. Notice of Complaint or Allegation to be Provided to Person Being Investigated

A. At the initial time of contact with a person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of a child who is the subject of an investigation pursuant to the Choctaw Nation Children's Code, the Department of Children and Family Services shall advise the person of the specific complaint or allegation made against the person. If the Department is unable to locate the person, as soon as possible after initiating the investigation of the person, the Department shall provide to the person a brief and easily understood written description of the investigation process. Notice shall include:

1. A statement that the investigation is being undertaken by the Department pursuant to the requirements of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code in response to a report of child abuse or neglect;

2. A statement that the identity of the person who reported the incident of abuse is confidential and may not even be known to the Department since the report could have been made anonymously;

3. A statement that the investigation is required by law to be conducted in order to enable the Department to identify incidents of abuse or neglect in order to provide protective or preventive social services to families who are in need of such services;

4. A statement that, upon completion of the investigation, a letter will be sent from the Department which will inform the person:

a. that the Department has found insufficient evidence of abuse or neglect, or

b. that there appears to be probable cause to suspect the existence of child abuse or neglect in the judgment of the Department;

5. An explanation of the procedures of the Department of Children and Family Services for conducting an investigation of alleged child abuse or neglect, including:

a. a description of the circumstances under which the Department would seek to remove the child from the home through the judicial system, and

b. an explanation that the law requires the Department to refer all reports of child abuse or neglect to a law enforcement agency for a separate determination of whether a criminal violation occurred;

6. The procedures to follow if there is a complaint regarding the actions of the Department or to request a review of the findings made by the Department during or at the conclusion of the investigation;

7. The right of the person to review records filed with the court in the event an action is filed;

8. The right of the person to seek legal counsel;

9. References to the statutory and regulatory provisions governing child abuse and neglect and how the person may obtain copies of those provisions;

10. The process the person may use to acquire visitation with the child if the child is removed from the home; and

11. A statement that a failure to appear for court proceedings may result in the termination of the person's parental rights to the child.

A 1. Every six (6) months such notice will reissue and include a determination stating whether the child is at imminent risk of removal, until either the Department terminates the investigation or judicial proceedings commence against the person responsible for the health, safety, or welfare of a child.

Section 1-2-107. Information Provided to a Person or Agency Providing Professional Services

A. The Department of Children and Family Services may provide information to a person or agency that provides professional services such as medical examination of or therapeutic intervention with a victim of abuse or neglect. This information may include, but is not limited to:

1. The investigative determination; or
2. The services offered and provided.

B. The Department shall forward to any hospital or any physician, including, but not limited to, doctors of medicine and dentistry, licensed osteopathic physicians, residents and interns, reporting the abuse or neglect of a child pursuant to Section 1-2-101 of this title, information including the investigative determination, the services offered or provided, and such other information deemed necessary by the Department. The information shall be entered and maintained in the medical records of the child.

Section 1-2-108. Central Registry for Child Abuse, Sexual Abuse and neglect - Maintenance of Registry - Contents - Confidentiality

A. There is hereby established within the Department of Children and Family Services an information system for the maintenance of all reports of child abuse, sexual abuse, and neglect made pursuant to the provisions of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code.

B. The Department of Children and Family Services shall be responsible for maintaining a suitably cross-indexed system of all the reports.

C. The records maintained shall contain, but shall not be limited to:

1. All information in the written report required by Section 1-2-101 of this Title;
2. A record of the final disposition of the report including services offered and services accepted;
3. The plan for rehabilitative treatment; and
4. Any other relevant information.

D. Data and information maintained and related to individual cases shall be confidential and shall be made available only as authorized by tribal or federal law.

E. The Department of Children and Family Services shall promulgate rules governing the availability of such data and information.

F. Rules promulgated by the Department of Children and Family Services designed to facilitate cooperation with other states and tribes in exchanging reports in order to effect a national registration system.

G. No person shall allow the data and information maintained to be released except as authorized by Chapter VI of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code.

H. Records obtained by the Department shall be maintained by the Department until otherwise provided by law.

Section 1-2-109. Relinquishment of child to medical Services Provider or Child Rescuer

A. A parent subject to the provisions of this act shall not be prosecuted for child abandonment or child neglect under the provisions of any statute which makes child abandonment or child neglect a crime, when the allegations of child abandonment or child neglect are based solely on the relinquishment of a child seven (7) days of age or younger to a medical services provider or a child rescuer as defined in this section.

B. The following entities shall, without a court order, take possession of a child seven (7) days of age or younger if the child is voluntarily delivered to the entity by the parent of the child and the parent did not express an intent to return for the child:

1. A medical services provider; or
2. A child rescuer.

C. Any entity identified in subsection B of this section to which a parent seeks to relinquish a child pursuant to the provisions of this section may:

1. Request, but not demand, any information about the child that the parent is willing to share. The entity is encouraged to ask about, but not demand, the details of any relevant medical history relating to the child or the parents of the child. The entity shall respect the wish of the parent if the parent desires to remain anonymous; and

2. Provide the parent with printed information relating to the rights of the parents, including both parents, with respect to reunification with the child and sources of counseling for the parents, if desired.

D. Once a child has been relinquished to any entity identified in subsection B of this section, the entity receiving the child shall:

1. Perform or provide for the performance of any act necessary to protect the physical health or safety of the child; and

2. Notify the local office of the Department that a parent of a child seven (7) days of age or younger, in the best judgment of the receiving entity, has relinquished such child and that the entity has taken possession of the child.

E. Upon being made aware that a medical services provider or child rescuer has possession of a child under the provisions of this act, the Department of Children and Family Services shall immediately check with law enforcement authorities to determine if a child has been reported missing and whether the missing child could be the relinquished child.

F. The Department shall design and disseminate:

1. A simplified form for the recording of medical or other information that a relinquishing parent wishes to share with the entity to whom the child is being relinquished;

2. Easily understood printed materials that give information about parents' rights with regard to reunification with a child including, but not limited to, information on how a parent can contact the appropriate entity regarding reunification, and information on sources of counseling for relinquishing parents; and

3. Media information, including printed material, that creates public awareness about the provisions of this Act.

G. For purposes of this Section:

1. "Medical services provider" means a person authorized to practice the healing arts, including a physician's assistant or nurse practitioner, a registered or practical nurse, and a nurse aide; and

2. "Child rescuer" means any employee or other designated person on duty at a police station, fire station, child protective services agency, hospital, or other medical facility.

H. A medical services provider or child rescuer with responsibility for performing duties pursuant to this section shall be immune from any criminal liability that might otherwise result from the actions of the entity, if acting in good faith in receiving a relinquished child. In addition, such medical provider or child rescuer shall be immune from any civil liability that might otherwise result from merely receiving a relinquished child.

Section 1-2-110. Reserved.

CHAPTER III. MEDICAL AND BEHAVIORAL HEALTH TREATMENT

Section 1-3-101. Authorization to Consent to Medical or Dental Care

A. 1. Either parent or the court appointed legal guardian of a child may authorize, in writing, any adult person into whose care the minor has been entrusted to consent to any;

- a. x-ray examination,
- b. anesthetic,
- c. medical or surgical diagnosis or treatment,
- d. hospital care, or

e. immunization, blood tests, examinations, Guidance Services, and Early Intervention Services, to be rendered to said minor under the general or special supervision and upon the advice of a physician and surgeon, or to consent to an x-ray examination, anesthetic, dental or surgical diagnosis or treatment and hospital care to be rendered to said minor by a dentist.

2. If any parent or other person falsely represents in writing that such parent or other person has legal custody or legal guardianship of the minor child, or if any adult falsely represents that the written authorization provided for in this section subsection is valid, and a health professional provides health services or care as provided by this section in good faith upon such misrepresentation, the health professional shall incur no liability except for negligence or intentional harm.

B. Either parent, if both parents have legal custody, or the parent or person having legal custody or the legal guardian of a minor may authorize, in writing, a school nurse or in the absence of such nurse, a school administrator or designated school employees to administer:

- 1. A nonprescription medicine; and
- 2. A prescription medicine of such minor child.

Section 1-3-102. Authorization to Consent to Emergency Medical Care

A. For purposes of this section:

1. "Routine and ordinary medical care and treatment" includes any necessary medical and dental examinations and treatment, medical screenings, clinical laboratory tests, blood testing, preventative care, health assessments, physical examinations, immunizations, contagious or infectious disease screenings or tests, and care required for treatment of illness and injury, including x-rays, stitches, and casts, but does not include any type of extraordinary care; and

2. "Extraordinary medical care and treatment" includes, but is not limited to, surgery, general anesthesia, blood transfusions, invasive or experimental procedures or the provision of psychotropic medications.

B. If a child taken into protective custody without a court order requires emergency medical care prior to the emergency custody hearing, and either the treatment is related to the suspected abuse or neglect, or the parent or legal guardian is unavailable or unwilling to consent to treatment recommended by a physician, a peace officer, court employee, or the court may authorize such treatment as is necessary to safeguard the health or life of the child. Before a peace officer, court employee, or the court authorizes treatment based on unavailability of the parent or legal guardian, law enforcement shall exercise diligence in locating the parent or guardian, if known.

C. 1. If a child has been placed in the custody of the Department of Children and Family Services, the Department shall have the authority to consent to routine and ordinary medical care and treatment. The Department shall make reasonable attempts to notify the child's parent or legal guardian of the provision of routine and ordinary medical care and treatment and to keep the parent or legal guardian involved in such care.

2. In no case shall the Department consent to a child's abortion, sterilization, termination of life support or a "Do Not Resuscitate" order. The court may authorize the withdrawal of life-sustaining medical treatment or the denial of the administration of cardiopulmonary resuscitation on behalf of a child in the Department's custody upon the written recommendation of a licensed physician, after notice to the parties and a hearing.

3. Nothing herein shall prevent the Department from authorizing, in writing, any person, foster parent or administrator of a facility into whose care a child in its custody has been entrusted, to consent to routine and ordinary medical care and treatment to be rendered to a child upon the advice of a licensed physician, including the continuation of psychotropic medication.

D. Consent for a child's extraordinary medical care and treatment shall be obtained from the parent or legal guardian unless the treatment is either related to the abuse, or neglect or the parent or legal guardian is unavailable, or refuses to consent to such care, in which case in an emergency, based upon recommendation of a physician, the court may enter an ex parte order authorizing such treatment or procedure in order to safeguard the child's health or life. If the recommended extraordinary medical care and treatment is not an emergency, the court shall hold a hearing, upon application by the prosecutor and notice to all parties, and may authorize such recommended extraordinary care.

E. If a child has been placed in the custody of a person, other than a parent or legal guardian, or an institution or agency other than the Department, the court shall determine the authority of the person, institution, or agency to consent to medical care including routine and ordinary medical care and treatment and extraordinary care. The parent, legal guardian, or person having legal custody shall be responsible for the costs of medical care as determined by the court.

Section 1-3-103. Civil and Criminal Immunity for Persons Acting Pursuant to Act, Court Order, or Consent

No peace officer, employee of the court, employee of the Department of Children and Family Services, or person consenting or not consenting to medical treatment or behavioral health evaluation or treatment in accordance with the provisions of this Title shall have any liability, civil or criminal, for such action. No physician or health care provider acting pursuant to consent or pursuant to court order authorizing treatment shall have any liability, civil or criminal, for acting pursuant to consent or authorization.

CHAPTER IV. COURT PROCEEDINGS

PART 1. JURISDICTION

Section 1-4-101. Jurisdiction - Temporary Order - Interlocutory Relief - Conflicting Orders - Venue - Transfer of Proceedings

A. 1. Upon the filing of a petition, the assumption of the custody of a child, or issuance of an emergency custody order pursuant to the provisions of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code, the district court shall obtain jurisdiction over any child who is, or is alleged to be, deprived. Jurisdiction shall also be obtained over any parent, legal guardian, or custodian of and any other person living in the home of such child who appears in court or has been properly served with a summons pursuant to Section 1-4-304 of this Title.

2. When jurisdiction has been obtained over a child who is or, is alleged to be, a deprived child:

a. such jurisdiction may be retained until the child becomes eighteen (18) years of age,

b. the court may issue any temporary order or grant any interlocutory relief authorized by this Code in an emergency, regardless of whether another court has prior or current jurisdiction to determine the custody, support, or visitation of the child,

c. all other action then pending or thereafter commenced within the Choctaw Nation that concerns the custody, support, or visitation of the child shall be automatically stayed unless after notice to the parties in the deprived action, the written consent of such court is obtained and filed in the other proceeding; provided, a child's delinquency action may, in the discretion of the court, proceed pursuant to the Choctaw Nation Juvenile Code,

d. all orders entered in the deprived proceeding concerning the custody, support, or visitation of a child shall control over conflicting orders entered in other actions until such time as the jurisdiction of the court in the deprived proceeding terminates, and

e. the judge presiding over a deprived action shall have the authority to make a final determination in the matter and preside over any separate action necessary to finalize a child's court-approved permanency plan including an adoption, guardianship, or other custody proceeding.

B. 1. Venue of any action involving a child alleged to be deprived may be in any county of the State of Oklahoma within the 10 ½ counties of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma where:

- a. the child is found,
- b. the child resides,
- c. the alleged acts of deprivation occurred, or
- d. a parent or sibling has a deprived action pending.

2. For purposes of this section, the residence of the child shall be the residence of the person who has the legal right to physical custody of the child according to a prior court order or by operation of law.

a. If there is no order determining the custody of the child, the custodian of the child shall be:

- (1) both parents where they reside together,
- (2) the primary or actual physical custodial parent where parents do not reside together, or
- (3) the mother where paternity has or has not been established.

b. The residence of a newborn child shall be deemed to be the county where the child's mother legally resided at the time of the child's birth.

c. When the child is in the permanent custody of a public or private child care agency, the residence of the child shall be the county in which the child resides at the time when legal proceedings are initiated.

d. For purposes of transfer, the residence of the child may be with the person that the court approves for permanent placement.

3. The place of holding court will be determined by the appropriate court.

Section 1-4-102. Custody or Visitation Proceeding - Evidence of Child Abuse or Neglect - Referral for Investigation - Prosecutor to Decide Whether to File Deprived Petition - Attorney or Guardian Ad Litem for Child

A. 1. If the evidence in a court proceeding concerning child custody or visitation indicates that a child may be a victim of abuse or neglect, the court shall refer the allegations to the Department of Children and Family Services for an assessment or investigation.

2. The Department shall conduct an assessment or investigation concerning such report in accordance with priority guidelines established by the Department.

3. The Department shall submit a report of its assessment or investigation to the office of the prosecutor and provide a copy of its reports to the referring court within thirty (30) days of such notice, and notify parties to the proceeding of the submission of the report to the court.

4. The prosecutor shall advise the referring court within three (3) days of the receipt of the findings of the Department whether a deprived petition will be filed by that office. If no deprived petition is filed, the referring court may take appropriate action regarding the custody or visitation of the child.

B. Nothing in this Section shall:

a. preclude the referring court from entering an order to have the child taken into emergency custody if evidence presented to the referring court indicates a child is in surroundings that are such as to endanger the welfare of the child. If a child is placed into emergency custody by such an order, the provisions of Chapter IV of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code shall apply, or

b. preclude any court presiding over any proceeding from referring allegations of child abuse or neglect to the Department for assessment or investigation.

C. If, in any proceeding concerning child custody or visitation, the evidence indicates that a child has been subject to abuse or neglect, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the child for that proceeding and any related proceedings and may appoint a guardian ad litem for the child as permitted by law.

PART 2. PROTECTIVE AND EMERGENCY CUSTODY

Section 1-4-201. Child Taken into Custody Prior to Filing of Petition - Pre-Petition Emergency Custody Orders

A. Pursuant to the provisions of this section, a child may be taken into custody prior to the filing of a petition:

1. By a peace officer or employee of the court, without a court order if the officer or employee has reasonable suspicion that:

a. the child is in need of immediate protection due to abuse or neglect, or

b. the circumstances or surroundings of the child are such that continuation in the child's home or in the care or custody of the parent, legal guardian, or custodian would present an imminent danger to the child; or

2. By an order of the district court issued upon the application of the prosecutor. The application presented by the prosecutor may be supported by a sworn affidavit which may be based upon information and belief. The application shall state facts sufficient to demonstrate to the court that a continuation of the child in the home or with the caretaker of the child is contrary to the child's welfare, and there is reasonable suspicion that:

a. the child is in need of immediate protection due to abandonment, abuse, or neglect, or

b. the circumstances or surroundings of the child are such that continuation in the child's home or in the care or custody of the parent, legal guardian, or custodian would present an imminent danger to the child.

The application and order may be verbal and upon being advised by the prosecutor of the verbal order, law enforcement shall act on such order. If verbal, the prosecutor shall submit a written application and proposed order to the district court within one (1) judicial day from the issuance of the verbal order. Upon approval, the application and order shall be filed with the court clerk; or

3. By order of the district court when the child is in need of medical or behavioral health treatment in order to protect the health, safety, or welfare of the child and the parent, legal guardian, or custodian of the child is unwilling or unavailable to consent to such medical or behavioral health treatment or other action, the court shall specifically include in the emergency order authorization for such medical or behavioral health evaluation or treatment as it deems necessary.

B. When an order issued by the district court pursuant to subsection A of this section places the child in the emergency custody of the Department of Children and Family Services pending further hearing specified by Section 1-4-203 of this Title, an employee of the Department may execute such order and physically take the child into custody in the following limited circumstance:

1. The child is located in a hospital, school, or day care facility; and

2. It is believed that assumption of the custody of the child from the facility can occur without risk to the child or the employee of the Department.

Otherwise, the order shall be executed and the child taken into custody by a peace officer or employee of the court.

C. The court shall not enter an emergency custody order removing a child from the home of the child unless the court makes a determination:

1. That continuation in the home of the child is contrary to the welfare of the child or that immediate placement is in the best interests of the child; and

2. Whether reasonable efforts have been made to prevent the removal of the child from the child's home; or

3. An absence of efforts to prevent the removal of the child from the home of the child is reasonable because the removal is due to an emergency and is for the purpose of providing for the welfare of the child.

D. Whenever a child is taken into custody pursuant to this section:

1. The child may be taken to a children's shelter located within the county where protective or emergency custody is assumed or, if there is no children's shelter within the county, to a children's shelter designated by the court;

2. Except as otherwise provided by subsection E of this Section, the child may be taken before a judge of the district court, or the court may be contacted verbally for the purpose of obtaining an order for emergency custody. The court may place the child in the emergency custody of the Department or some other suitable person or entity pending further hearing specified by Section;

3. The child may be taken directly to, or retained in, a health care facility for medical treatment, when the child is in need of emergency medical treatment to maintain the child's health, or as otherwise directed by the court; or

4. The child may be taken directly to, or retained in, a behavioral health treatment facility for evaluation, or inpatient treatment, in accordance with the provisions of the Inpatient Mental Health and Substance Abuse Treatment of Minors Act, when the child is in need of behavioral health care to preserve the child's health, or as otherwise directed by the court; and

5. Except as otherwise provided by subsection E of this Section, the district court shall be immediately notified, verbally or in writing, that the child has been taken into custody. If notification is verbal, written notification shall be sent to the district court within one (1) judicial day of such verbal notification.

E. The court may provide, in an order issued pursuant to this Section or by a standing order or rule, for the disposition of children taken into custody and notification of the assumption of such custody. Such order or rule shall be consistent with the provisions of subsection D of this section, but may also:

1. Designate a licensed child care facility, other than a children's shelter appropriate for the temporary care of deprived children, if the facility is willing to provide care; and

2. Authorize the release of a child from custody in accord with such criteria, or under such conditions as the court specifies, or the placement of a child with responsible persons, as the court may designate, who are willing to provide care for the child pending further proceedings.

F. No child taken into custody pursuant to this section shall be confined in any jail, adult lockup, or adult or juvenile detention facility.

G. Any peace officer, employee of the court, court-appointed special advocate, employee of the Department, and any other person acting under the direction of the court, who in good faith transports any child, shall be immune from civil or criminal liability that may result by reason of such act. For purposes of any proceedings, civil or criminal, the good faith of any such person shall be presumed.

H. A parent or person responsible for the child who is arrested on a charge or warrant other than child abuse or neglect or an act of child endangerment may designate another person to take physical custody of the child. Upon this request, the peace officer may release the child to the physical custody of the designated person.

Section 1-4-202. Notice of Custody Hearing

A. The peace officer, employee of the court, or the employee of the Department of Children and Family Services responsible for assuming physical custody of a child shall provide the parent, legal guardian, or physical custodian of the child with immediate written notice of the protective or emergency custody of the child if personally present, or, if not present, as soon as possible.

B. The written notice shall inform the parents, legal guardian, or custodian of the following:

1. That an emergency custody hearing to determine custody of the child will occur within two (2) judicial days from the date the child was taken into custody;

2. The date, time, and place for the emergency custody hearing;

3. The nature of the allegation that led to placement of the child into protective or emergency custody;

4. The address and telephone number of the applicable law enforcement agency and the Department; and

5. The right to-contact an attorney.

C. The written notice shall also contain the following language:

“FAILURE TO RESPOND TO THIS NOTICE OR TO APPEAR AT THE EMERGENCY CUSTODY HEARING MEANS YOUR CHILD WILL REMAIN IN CUSTODY. YOUR FAILURE TO RESPOND OR COOPERATE MEANS YOU MAY LOSE CUSTODY OF THIS CHILD, OR YOUR RIGHTS AS A PARENT MAY BE TERMINATED.”

Section 1-4-203. Emergency Custody Hearing

A. Within the next two (2) judicial days following the child being taken into protective or emergency custody, the court shall conduct an emergency custody hearing. At the hearing, information may be provided to the court in the form of oral or written reports, affidavits or testimony. Any information having probative value may be received by the court regardless of its admissibility under the Choctaw Nation Evidence Code. At the hearing the court shall:

1. Determine whether facts exist that are sufficient to demonstrate to the court there is reasonable suspicion that the child is in need of immediate protection due to abuse or neglect, or that the circumstances or surroundings of the child are such that continuation of the child in the child's home, or in the care, or custody of the parent, legal guardian, or custodian would present an imminent danger to the child;

2. Advise the parent, legal guardian, or custodian of the child in writing of the following:

a. any right of the parent, legal guardian, or custodian to testify and present evidence at court hearings,

b. the right to be represented by an attorney at court hearings,

c. the consequences of failure to attend any hearings which may be held, and

d. the right to appeal and procedure for appealing an order of the court.

3. Determine custody of the child and order one of the following:

a. release of the child to the custody of the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian from whom the child was removed under any conditions the court finds reasonably necessary to protect the health, safety, or welfare of the child, or

b. after determining that release of the child to the custody of the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian would be contrary to the child's welfare, or that the placement would not be in the best interest of the child:

(1) place the child in the custody of a responsible adult or licensed child-placing agency under any conditions the court finds reasonably necessary to protect the health, safety, or welfare of the child, or

(2) continue the child in or to place the child into the emergency custody of the Department of Children and Family Services;

4. Order the parent, legal guardian, or custodian to complete an affidavit listing the names, addresses, and phone numbers of any parent, whether known or alleged, grandparent, aunt, uncle, brother, sister, half-sibling, and first cousin and any comments concerning the appropriateness of the potential placement of the child with the relative. If no such relative exists, the court shall require the parent, legal guardian, or custodian to list any other relatives or persons with whom the child has had a substantial relationship or who may be a suitable placement for the child;

5. Direct the parent, legal guardian, or custodian to furnish the Department with a copy of the child's birth certificate within fifteen (15) days from the hearing if a petition is filed, unless otherwise extended by the court; and

6. In accordance with the safety or well-being of any child, determine whether reasonable efforts have been made to:

a. place siblings, who have been removed, together in the same foster care, guardianship, or adoptive placement, and

b. provide for frequent visitation or other ongoing interaction in the case of siblings who have been removed and who are not placed together.

B. The court clerk shall create an affidavit form and make it available in each courtroom where emergency custody hearings are conducted. The affidavit form shall contain a notice to the parent, legal guardian, or custodian that failure to identify a parent or relative in a timely manner may result in the child being permanently placed outside of the home of the child's parent or relative. The affidavit form shall also advise the parent, legal guardian, or custodian of the penalties associated with perjury and contempt of court. The original completed affidavit shall be filed with the court clerk no later than five (5) days after the hearing or as otherwise directed by the court and a copy shall be provided to the Department.

C. 1. The Department shall, within thirty (30) days of the removal of a child, exercise due diligence to identify and provide notice to all adult relatives of the child. The notice shall advise the relatives:

a. the child has been or is being removed from the custody of the parent or parents of the child,

b. the options under applicable law to participate in the care and placement of the child, including any options that may be lost by failing to respond to the notice, and

c. the requirements to become a foster family home and the additional services and supports available for children placed in the home.

d. how the relative guardian of the child may subsequently enter into an agreement with the Department to receive the payments under the kinship guardianship assistance program.

2. Relatives shall not be notified if notification would not be in the best interests of a child due to past or current family or domestic violence. The Department may promulgate rules in furtherance of the provisions of this subsection.

Section 1-4-204. Award of Custody or Determination of Placement - Preference for Relatives and Persons with Kinship Relationship

A. 1. When awarding custody or determining the placement of a child, a preference shall be given to relatives and persons who have a kinship relationship with the child. The Department of Children and Family Services shall make diligent efforts to place the child with such persons and shall report to the court the efforts made to secure that placement.

2. When two or more children are siblings, every reasonable attempt shall be made to place the siblings in the same home. In making a permanent placement, siblings shall be placed in the same permanent home or, if the siblings are separated, shall be allowed contact or visitation with each other; provided, however, the best interests of each sibling shall be the standard for determining the appropriate custodian or placement as well as the contact and visitation with the other siblings.

3. In determining the appropriate custodian or placement for a child pursuant to subsection A of this section, the court and the Department shall consider, but not be limited to, the following factors:

a. the ability of the person being considered to provide safety for the child, including a willingness to cooperate with any restrictions placed on contact between the child and others, and to prevent others from influencing the child in regard to the allegations of the case,

b. the ability of the person being considered to support the efforts of the Department to implement the permanent plan for the child,

c. the ability of the person being considered to meet the child's physical, emotional, and educational needs, including the child's need to continue in the same school or educational placement,

d. the person who has the closest existing personal relationship with the child if more than one person requests placement of the child pursuant to this section,

e. the ability of the person being considered to provide a placement for the child's sibling who is also in need of placement or continuation in substitute care,

f. the wishes of the parent, the relative, and the child, if appropriate,

g. the ability of the person being considered to care for the child as long as is necessary and to provide a permanent home if necessary, and

h. the best interests of the child.

B. 1. The Department of Children and Family Services shall consider placement with a relative without delay and shall identify relatives of the child and notify them of the need for temporary placement and the possibility of the need for a permanent out-of-home placement of the child. The relative search shall be reasonable and comprehensive in scope and may continue until a fit and willing relative is identified.

2. The relatives shall be notified of the need to keep the Department informed of their current address in order to receive notice when a permanent out-of-home placement is being sought for the child. A relative who fails to provide a current address may forfeit the right to be considered for the child's permanent out-of-home placement.

3. A decision by a relative to not participate in the child's placement planning at the beginning of the case or to cooperate with the Department to expedite procedures for placement of the child in the child's home may affect whether that relative will be considered for permanent placement of the child if the child cannot be safely returned to the home of the child's parent or parents.

C. The Department, while assessing the relatives for the possibility of placement, shall be authorized to disclose to the relative, as appropriate, the fact that the child is in custody, the alleged reasons for the custody, and the projected date for the child's return home or other permanent placement as well as any other confidential information deemed necessary and appropriate to secure a suitable placement.

D. Following an initial placement with a relative, whenever a new placement of the child is made, consideration for placement shall again be given as described in this section to approved relatives who will fulfill the reunification or permanent plan requirements of the child. The Department shall consider whether the relative has established and maintained a relationship with the child.

E. If the child is not placed with a relative who has been considered for placement pursuant to this section, the Department shall advise the court, in writing, the reasons why that relative was denied and the written reasons shall be made a part of the court record.

F. The provisions of this section shall apply to all custody or placement proceedings which concern a child alleged or adjudicated to be deprived including, but not limited to, guardianship and adoption proceedings.

Section 1-4-205. Records of Child Released from Protective Custody Prior to Hearing - Petition for Deprived Child Proceeding - Hearings - Order for Removal of Child from Home

A. The prosecutor and the Department of Children and Family Services shall maintain records concerning a child in protective custody who is released prior to the emergency custody hearing. The records shall describe the reason for such release.

B. 1. A petition for a deprived child proceeding shall be filed and a summons issued within seven (7) judicial days from the date the child is taken into custody unless, upon request of the prosecutor at the emergency custody hearing, the court determines there are compelling reasons to grant additional time for the filing of the petition for a period of time not to exceed fifteen (15) calendar days from the assumption of custody.

2. If a petition is not filed as required by this subsection, the emergency custody order shall expire. The prosecutor shall submit for filing in the court record a written record specifying the reasons why the petition was not filed and specifying to whom the child was released.

C. The court may hold additional hearings at such intervals as may be determined necessary by the court to provide for the health, safety, or welfare of the child.

D. In scheduling hearings, the court shall give priority to proceedings in which a child is in emergency custody.

E. An order of the court providing for the removal of a child alleged to be deprived from the home of the child shall not be entered unless the court makes a determination:

1. That continuation of the child in the child's home is contrary to the health, safety, or welfare of the child; and

2. As to whether or not reasonable efforts were made to prevent the need for the removal of the child from the child's home; or

3. As to whether or not an absence of efforts to prevent the removal of the child from the child's home is reasonable because the removal is due to an alleged emergency and is for the purpose of providing for the health, safety, or welfare of the child; or

4. That reasonable efforts to provide for the return of the child to the child's home are not required pursuant to Section 1-4-809 of this Title; provided, however, upon such determination, the court shall inform the parent that a permanency hearing will be held within thirty (30) days from the determination.

Section 1-4-206. Restraining Order - Service - Hearing - Notice of Order - Termination and Renewal - Penalties for Violations

A. 1. At the emergency custody hearing or when a petition has been filed alleging that a child has been physically or sexually abused, the court may enter an order restraining the alleged perpetrator of the abuse from having contact with the child or attempting to contact the child and requiring the alleged perpetrator to move from the household in which the child resides. The court may issue a restraining order only if the court finds that:

a. there is a reasonable suspicion that abuse occurred and that the person to be restrained committed the abuse, and

b. the order is in the best interest of the child.

2. The court may also enter other appropriate orders including, but not limited to, orders that control contact between the alleged abuser, other children in the home, and any other person.

3. The court shall include in an order entered under this subsection the following information about the person to be restrained to the extent known by the court at the time the order is entered:

B. If the court enters an order under this section:

1. The clerk of the court shall provide without charge the number of certified true copies of the order and petition, if available, necessary to effect service and shall deliver the same to the tribal police or other person qualified to serve the order for service upon the person to be restrained; and

2. The tribal police or other person qualified to serve the order shall serve the person to be restrained personally unless that person is present at the hearing. After accepting the order, if the tribal police or other person cannot complete service within ten (10) days, the tribal police or other person shall file a return to the clerk of the court showing that service was not completed and the reason for the non-completion.

C. Within thirty (30) days after an order is served under this section, the restrained person may file a written request with the court and receive a court hearing on any portion of the order. If the restrained person requests a hearing under this subsection:

1. The court shall notify the parties and the restrained person of the date and time of the hearing; and

2. The court shall hold a hearing within twenty-one (21) days after the request for hearing is filed with the court and at the conclusion of the hearing may cancel or modify the order.

D. 1. Within twenty-four (24) hours of the return of service of the restraining order, the clerk of the court shall send certified copies thereof to all appropriate law enforcement agencies designated by the court. A certified copy of any extension, modification, vacation, cancellation, or consent agreement concerning the restraining order shall be sent by the clerk of the court to those law enforcement agencies receiving the original orders pursuant to this section and to any law enforcement agencies designated by the court.

2. Any law enforcement agency receiving copies of the documents listed in paragraph 1 of this subsection shall be required to ensure that other law enforcement agencies have access twenty-four (24) hours a day to the information contained in the documents which may include entry of information about the restraining order in the National Crime Information Center database.

E. A restraining order issued pursuant to this section remains in effect for a period of twelve (12) months or until the order is sooner modified, amended, or terminated by court order.

F. A court that issued a restraining order under this section may renew the order for a period of up to twelve (12) months if the court finds that there is probable cause to believe the renewal is in the best interest of the child. The court may renew the order on motion by the tribe or the child's attorney alleging facts supporting the required finding. If the renewal order is granted, subsections B and C of this section apply.

G. If a restraining order issued pursuant to this section is terminated before its expiration date, the clerk of the court shall promptly deliver a true copy of the termination order to the tribal police. The tribal police shall promptly remove the original order from the National Crime Information Center database.

H. Any person who has been served with the restraining order and is in violation of the restraining order, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or by a term of imprisonment of not more than six (6) months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 1-4-207. Immediate Assumption of Custody and Ordering of Necessary Actions

Nothing contained in the Choctaw Nation Children's Code shall prevent a court from immediately assuming custody of a child and ordering whatever action may be necessary, including medical or behavioral health treatment, to protect the child's health, safety, or welfare; however, the first court ruling that sanctions the removal of a child must make the determination that custody by the child's parent, legal guardian, or custodian would be contrary to the welfare, or that the placement would be in the best interest, of the child.

The court may grant leave to amend the petition upon a showing of good cause after that date and prior to the adjudicatory hearing. The court may allow amendment of the petition to conform with the evidence at any time prior to the adjudicatory ruling of the court. In all cases in which the court has granted leave to amend based on new evidence or new allegations, the court shall permit the respondent a reasonable and adequate opportunity to prepare as may be required to ensure a full and fair hearing. The court shall not amend the adjudicatory category prayed for in the petition.

C. In any case in which the allegations contained within the original petition have been sustained and a child is found to be a deprived child, if the tribe subsequently alleges new facts, or different conditions are discovered to be sufficient, if sustained, to support a finding that the child is a deprived child, then the tribe may file a subsequent petition entitled “Post-adjudication Petition.” This section shall not apply if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has been terminated prior to the new allegations.

D. All procedures and hearings required for an original petition are applicable to a post-adjudication petition filed under this section. The post-adjudication petition shall be filed in the same case as the original petition.

Section 1-4-303. Scheduling of Hearing - Issuance and Contents of Summons – Service - Waiver of Service

A. 1. B. A party other than the child may waive service of summons in writing or by voluntary appearance at the hearing. A child’s counsel may waive service of summons on the child’s behalf.

1. The court determines that the time, content, and totality of circumstances surrounding the taking of the statement provide sufficient indicia of reliability so as to render it inherently trustworthy. In determining trustworthiness, the court may consider, among other things, the following factors: the spontaneity and consistent repetition of the statement, the mental state of the declarant, whether the terminology used is unexpected of a child of similar age or of an incapacitated person, and whether a lack of motive to fabricate exists; and the child either:

6. Every voice on the recording is identified;

7. The person conducting the interview of the child in the recording is present at the proceeding and is available to testify or be cross-examined by any party;

8. Each party to the proceeding is afforded an opportunity to view the recording before the recording is offered into evidence; and

9. A copy of a written transcript of the recording transcribed by a licensed or certified court reporter is available to the parties.

A statement may not be admitted under this subsection unless the proponent of the statement makes known to the parties an intention to offer the statement and the particulars of the statement at least ten (10) days in advance of the proceedings to provide the parties with an opportunity to prepare to answer the statement.

Section 1-4-506. Testimony of Child Taken in Room other than Courtroom - Court Order

b. the recording equipment is capable of making an accurate recording, the operator of the equipment is competent, and the recording is accurate and has not been altered;

c. every voice on the recording is identified, and

d. each party to the proceeding is afforded an opportunity to view the recording before it is shown in the courtroom, and a copy of a written transcript transcribed by a licensed or certified court reporter is provided to the parties.

A. At any stage of a proceeding under the Choctaw Nation Children's Code:

1. The parent or legal guardian, the child's attorney, or the prosecutor's office may apply for use immunity for a parent or legal guardian for in-court testimony. The in-court testimony of an immunized parent or legal guardian shall not be used against that parent or legal guardian in a criminal prosecution; provided, however, that the parent or legal guardian may be prosecuted for perjury that occurs during the testimony of the parent or legal guardian in a deprived proceeding;

2. The child's attorney or the prosecutor's office may apply for use immunity for any records, documents, or other physical objects produced by the immunized parent or legal guardian in the deprived proceeding, the production of which was compelled by a court order; or

Such immunity shall attach only to those statements made during the course of the actual evaluation or treatment and specifically does not attach to statements made to Department employees, agents, or other representatives in the course of the investigation of alleged child abuse, neglect, or abandonment.

B. Any other information available to the professional designated by the Department or authorized by the court to perform the court-ordered evaluation or treatment shall not be the subject of any application or order for immunity.

B.1. The child shall be released from emergency custody in the event the adjudication hearing is delayed beyond ninety (90) days from the date the petition is filed unless the court issues a written order with findings of fact supporting a determination that:

a. there exists reasonable suspicion that the health, safety, or welfare of the child would be in imminent danger if the child were returned to the home, and

b. there exists either an exceptional circumstance to support the continuance of the child in emergency custody or the parties and the guardian ad litem, if any, agree to such continuance.

2. If the adjudicatory hearing is delayed pursuant to this subsection, the emergency custody order shall expire unless the hearing on the merits of the petition is held within one hundred eighty (180) days after the actual removal of the child.

C. The release of a child from emergency custody due to the failure of an adjudication hearing being held within the time frame prescribed by this section shall not deprive the court of jurisdiction over the child and the parties or authority to enter temporary orders the court deems necessary to provide for the health, safety, and welfare of the child pending the hearing on the petition.

D. At the adjudication hearing, if the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child, the court shall:

1. Accept a stipulation by the child's parent, guardian, or other legal custodian that the facts alleged in the petition are true and correct;

2. Accept a stipulation by the child's parent, guardian, or other legal custodian that if the tribe presented its evidence supporting the truth of the factual allegations in the petition to a court of competent jurisdiction, such evidence would be sufficient to meet the tribe's burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the factual allegations are true and correct; or

3. Conduct a nonjury trial to determine whether the tribe has met its burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the factual allegations in the petition are true and correct.

E. 1. A decision determining a child to be deprived in a nonjury trial shall be based on sworn testimony.

2. The child, as a party to the proceeding, shall be given the opportunity to cross-examine witnesses and to present a case in chief if desired.

If the court finds that the factual allegations of the petition are not supported by a preponderance of the evidence, the court shall order the petition dismissed and shall order the child discharged from any custody. The child's parents, guardian, or other legal custodian shall also be discharged from any restriction or other previous temporary order.

Section 1-4-603. Factual Allegations of Petition Supported by a Preponderance of the Evidence

2. Such allegations are sufficient to support a finding that the child is deprived; and

3. It is in the best interests of the child that the child be declared to be a deprived child and made a ward of the court, then the court shall sustain the petition, and shall make an order of adjudication, finding the child to be deprived and shall adjudge the child as a ward of the court.

B. The order of adjudication shall include a statement that advises the parent that failure to appear at any subsequent hearing or comply with any requirements of the court may result in the termination of parental rights to the child.

C. When a child has been adjudicated deprived, the court shall enter a dispositional order pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-707 of this title.

D. When a child has been adjudicated deprived, the parent or other legal custodian shall register with the court clerk within two (2) days of the adjudication and provide a valid, current address or other place where the parent or other legal custodian may be served with a summons. In the event that the address or place where the parent or legal custodian may be served a summons changes during the course of the litigation, the parent or other legal custodian shall have the obligation of filing a change of address form with the clerk. In the event that an amended petition or motion is filed, the address listed on the form of the court clerk shall constitute the last-known address of the parent or other legal custodian unless the tribe has actual knowledge of the parent or other legal custodian's location.

3. Prior to the custody order being entered, the individual seeking custody shall provide a criminal history record to the court.

4. For purposes of this subsection the terms:

a. “relevant misdemeanor” may include assault and battery, alcohol or drug- related offenses, domestic violence, or other offenses involving the use of physical force or violence against the person or property of another, and

b. “individual” shall not include a parent or legal guardian of the child.

E. The provisions of this section shall not apply in any paternity or domestic relations case, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Section 1-4-706. Time of Dispositional Hearing - Evidence - Modification of Other Orders - Scheduling of Periodic Review and Permanency Hearings

A. The following kinds of dispositional orders may be made and shall be in accordance with the best interests of the child:

1. a. the court may place the child under protective supervision by the Department of Children and Family Services in the home of the child with the parent or legal guardian with whom the child was residing at the time the events or conditions arose that brought the child within the jurisdiction of the court, subject to such conditions as the court may prescribe that would reasonably prevent the child from continuing to be deprived,

b. the court may place the child with the noncustodial parent, if available, completion of a home assessment, unless the court finds that the placement would not be in the best interests of the child. Any party with knowledge of the facts may present evidence to the court regarding whether the placement is in the best interests of the child. If the court places the child with the parent, it may do either of the following:

(1) order that the noncustodial parent assume custodial responsibilities for the child. The court may also order reasonable visitation and the payment of child support by the child’s other parent. The court may then terminate its jurisdiction by entering a final permanency order. The final order entered determining custody, visitation and child support from the deprived action:

(a) shall remain in full force and effect and shall control over any custody or child support order entered in a district court action initiated prior to or during the pendency of the deprived action until such time as it is modified by a subsequent order of the district court, and

(b) may be docketed and filed in the prior existing or pending district court action; provided, however, if there is no district court action then in existence, the surviving order may be used as the sole basis for opening a new district court action in the same county where the deprived action was pending or in the county where the legal custody of the child reside. When applicable, the clerk of the juvenile court shall transmit the surviving order to the clerk of the district court of the county where the order is to be filed along with the names and last-known addresses of the parents of the child. The clerk of the district court shall immediately upon receipt open a file without a filing fee, assign a new case number and, when applicable, file the order and send by first-class mail a copy of the order with the new or prior existing case number back to the juvenile court and to the parents of the child at their last-known address. The order shall not be confidential and may be enforced or modified after being docketed and filed in the prior existing or new district court action, or

(1) prior existing or new district court action, or

(2) order that the noncustodial parent assume custody of the child under protective supervision by the Department. The court may order that:

(a) reunification services be provided to the parent or legal guardian from whom the child has been or is being removed,

(b) services be provided solely to the parent who is assuming physical custody of the child in order to allow that parent to later obtain legal custody without court supervision, or

(c) services be provided to both parents, in which case the court shall determine, at a subsequent review hearing, which parent, if either, shall have custody of the child.

c. if the court orders the child into the home of a father whose paternity has not been established, the alleged father must cooperate in establishing paternity as a condition for the child's continued placement in the alleged father's home,

d. if the court issues an order for protective supervision of the child in the home of a parent, the court may order any of the following:

(1) that a party or other person living in the home vacate the child's home indefinitely or for a specified period of time within forty-eight (48) hours of issuing the order, and

(2) that a party, a parent, or a legal guardian of the child prevent a particular person from having contact with the child.

e. at any time during the deprived child proceedings, the court may issue an order specifying the conduct to be followed by any person living in the home that the court determines would be in the best interests of the child. The conduct specified shall be such as would reasonably prevent the child from continuing to be deprived,

f. the order placing the child under supervision by the Department in the child's own home shall remain in effect for a period of twelve (12) months. In appropriate circumstances, the court may extend or reduce the period of supervision by the Department,

2. a. if the court is unable to place the child in the home of a parent, the court shall give a preference for placing temporary custody of the child with a relative as specified in Section 1-4-204 of this Title, subject to the best interests of the child and the conditions and restrictions specified in Section 1-4-705 of this Title. In determining whether to place temporary custody of the child with a relative, the court may consider the following factors:

(1) the physical, psychological, educational, medical, and emotional needs of the child,

(2) the wishes of the parent, the relative, and the child, if appropriate,

(3) whether placement of the siblings and half-siblings can be made in the same home, if that placement is found to be in the best interest of each child,

(4) the background information of the relative and any other person living in the home, including whether any such person has a prior history of violence, acts of child abuse or neglect, or any other background that would render the home unsuitable,

(5) the nature and duration of the relationship between the child and the relative, and the relative's desire to care for and to provide long-term permanency for the child if reunification is unsuccessful, and

(6) the ability of the relative to do the following:

(a) provide a safe, secure, and stable environment for the child,

(b) exercise proper and effective care and control of the child,

(c) provide a home and the necessities of life for the child,

(d) protect the child from his or her parents,

(e) facilitate court-ordered reunification efforts with the parent,

(f) facilitate visitation with the child's siblings and other relatives, and

(g) arrange for appropriate and safe child care, if necessary.

b. if more than one appropriate relative requests preferential consideration pursuant to this section, each relative shall be evaluated under the factors enumerated in this paragraph. However, whenever a new temporary custody order regarding the child must be entered, consideration shall again be given as described in this section to relatives who have been found to be suitable and who will fulfill the permanency needs of the child,

c. if the court does not place temporary custody of the child with a relative pursuant to this subsection, the court shall state for the record the reasons placement with that relative was denied.

3. a. the court may place the child in the custody of a private institution or agency, including any institution established and operated by the county, authorized to care for children or to place them in family homes,

b. in placing a child in a private institution or agency, the court shall select one that is licensed by the Department or of any state department supervising or licensing private institutions and agencies,

c. whenever the court shall place a child in any institution or agency, it shall transmit with the order of commitment a summary of its information concerning the child, and such institution or agency shall give to the court such information concerning the child as the court may at any time require.

4. The court may place the child in the custody of the Department:

a. in selecting a placement for a child in its custody, the Department shall make an individualized determination based upon the child's best interests and permanency plan regarding the following placement options:

(1) a home or facility that meets the preferences specified by the tribe and federal Indian Child Welfare Acts when applicable,

(2) the home of a noncustodial parent,

(3) the home of a relative approved by the Department,

(4) the home of a non-relative kinship family approved by the Department,

(5) an approved foster home in which the child has been previously placed,

(6) a suitable non-kinship foster family approved by the Department,

(7) a suitable licensed group home for children, or

(8) an independent living program.

b. (1) Unless the child is placed with relatives, the child shall be placed when possible, in the county of residence of the child's parent or legal guardian in order to facilitate reunification of the family,

(2) if an appropriate placement is not available in the county of residence of the parent or legal guardian, the child shall be placed in an appropriate home in the nearest proximity to the resident county of the parent or legal guardian,

(3) nothing in this Section shall be construed to mean that the child's placements shall correspond in frequency to changes of residence by the parent or legal guardian. In determining whether the child should be moved, the Department shall take into consideration the potential harmful effects of disrupting the placement of the child and the reason of the parent or legal guardian for the move.

c. if the child is part of a sibling group, it shall be presumed that placement of the entire sibling group in the same placement is in the best interests of the child and siblings unless the presumption is rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence to the contrary.

5. The court may order the Department to coordinate the provision of services provided by other agencies in order that the court-approved permanency plan may be achieved.

6. a. If the court determines that reunification services are appropriate for the child and a parent, the court shall allow reasonable visitation with the parent or legal guardian from whose custody the child was removed, unless visitation is not in the best interest of the child, taking into consideration.

(1) protection of the physical safety of the child,

(2) protection of the life of the child,

(3) protection of the child from being traumatized by contact with the parent,

and

(4) the child's expressed wishes.

b. a court may not deny visitation based solely on the failure of a parent to prove that the parent has not used legal or illegal substances or complied with an aspect of the court-ordered individualized service plan.

7. The court may order a permanent guardianship to be established as more fully set forth in Section 1-4-709 of this Title.

8. Except as otherwise provided by law, the court may dismiss the petition and terminate its jurisdiction at any time for good cause shown when doing so is in the best interests of the child.

B. Any order entered pursuant to this section shall include:

1. A statement informing the child's parent that the consequences of noncompliance with the requirement of the court may include termination of the parent's rights with respect to the child; or

2. A statement informing the child's legal guardian or custodian that the consequences of noncompliance with the requirement of the court may include removal of the child from the custody of the legal guardian or custodian.

Section 1-4-707. Dispositional Orders - Required Information

A. 1. In any dispositional order removing a child from the home of the child, the court shall make a determination as to whether, in accordance with the best interests and the health, safety, or welfare of the child, reasonable efforts have been made to provide for the safe return of the child to the child's own home.

2. If reasonable efforts are required for the safe return of the child to the child's home, the court shall allow the parent of the child not less than three (3) months to correct the conditions which led to the adjudication of the child as a deprived child; however, the time period for reunification services may not exceed seventeen (17) months from the date that the child was initially removed from the child's home, absent a finding of compelling reasons to the contrary.

3. If the court finds that continuation of reasonable efforts to return the child home are inconsistent with the permanency plan for a child, the court shall determine whether reasonable efforts have been made to complete the steps necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the child.

4. Reasonable efforts to reunite the child with the child's family shall not be required pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-809 of this Title.

B. In any dispositional order involving a child sixteen (16) years of age or older, the court shall make a determination, where appropriate, of the services needed to assist the child to make the transition from out-of-home care to independent living.

C. 1. In accordance with the safety or well-being of any child, the court shall determine in any dispositional order whether reasonable efforts have been made to:

a. place siblings, who have been removed, together in the same foster care, guardianship, or adoptive placement, and

b. provide for frequent visitation or other ongoing interaction in the case of siblings who have been removed and who are not placed together.

Section 1-4-708. Deprived Adjudication for Repeated Absence from School

A. In cases where the child has been adjudicated to be deprived due to repeated absence from school, the court may order counseling and treatment for the child and the parents.

B. Prior to final disposition, the court shall require verification by the appropriate school district that the child found to be truant has been evaluated for literacy, learning disabilities, developmental disabilities, hearing and visual impairment, and other impediments which could constitute an educational handicap. The results of such assessments or evaluations shall be made available to the court for use by the court in determining the disposition of the case.

C. No child who has been adjudicated deprived upon the basis of noncompliance with the mandatory school attendance law alone may be placed in a public or private institutional facility or be removed from the custody of the lawful parent, legal guardian, or custodian of the child.

D. A deprived adjudication based solely upon repeated absence from school shall not constitute a ground for termination of parental rights.

Section 1-4-709. Required Conditions for Establishing Permanent Guardianship - Rights and Responsibilities of Permanent Guardian

A. The court may establish a permanent guardianship between a child and a relative or other adult if the guardianship is in the child's best interests and all of the following conditions are substantially satisfied:

1. The child has been adjudicated to be a deprived child;
2. The parent has:
 - a. consented to the guardianship,
 - b. had his or her parental rights terminated,
 - c. failed to substantially correct the conditions that led to the adjudication of the child,
 - d. been adjudicated as incompetent or incapacitated by a court,
 - e. abandoned the child,
 - f. failed to be identified or has not been located despite reasonably diligent efforts to ascertain the whereabouts of the parent, or
 - g. died.
3. The child consents to the guardianship if the court finds the child to be of sufficient intelligence, understanding, and experience to provide consent;
4. Termination of the parent's rights is either not legally possible or not in the best interests of the child or adoption is not the permanency plan for the child;

5. The child and the prospective guardian do not require protective supervision or preventive services to ensure the stability of the guardianship;

6. The prospective guardian is committed to providing for the child until the child reaches the age of majority and to preparing the child for adulthood and independence;

7. The prospective guardian agrees not to return the child to the care of the person from whom the child was removed nor to allow visitation without the approval of the court; and

8. The child has been residing or placed with the proposed guardian for at least the six (6) preceding months or the permanent guardian is a relative with whom the child has a relationship.

B. In proceedings for permanent guardianship, the court shall give primary consideration to the physical and behavioral health needs of the child.

C. Unless otherwise set forth in the final order of permanent guardianship, a permanent guardian is vested with all of the rights and responsibilities as set forth in the guardianship statutes of the Choctaw Nation relating to the powers and duties of a guardian of a minor, other than those rights and responsibilities retained by the child's parent, if any, that are set forth in the decree of permanent guardianship.

Section 1-4-710. Motion for Permanent Guardianship - Notice of Hearing - Home Assessment - Required Findings - Visitation - Order

A. The prosecutor or child's attorney shall file a motion for permanent guardianship with the juvenile court in the deprived case. The motion shall be verified by the prospective guardian and shall include the following:

1. The name, gender, and date of birth of the child;
2. The facts and circumstances supporting the grounds for permanent guardianship;
3. The name and address of the prospective guardian and a statement that the prospective guardian agrees to accept the duties and responsibilities of guardianship;
4. The relationship of the child to the prospective guardian;
5. That the prospective guardian understands that the guardianship is intended to be permanent in nature and that the person will be responsible as the guardian until the child reaches the age of majority;
6. Whether the child has resided with the prospective guardian prior to the motion being filed, and, if so, the length of time and the circumstances surrounding the child's stay; and
7. Whether there exists a loving, emotional tie between the child and the prospective guardian.

B. Notice of the hearing as well as a copy of the motion shall be served upon the parties, the Department of Children and Family Services, and the guardian ad litem of the child, if any. Service shall not be required on the parent whose rights have been previously terminated.

C. 1. When the child is in the custody of the Department, the Department shall cause an assessment of the proposed guardian's home to be completed and provide a report to the court regarding the suitability of the proposed guardian and whether guardianship is in the best interest of the child. The Department shall promulgate rules in furtherance of the duties imposed by this subsection. However, the prospective guardian shall be responsible to obtain the house assessment if the child is not in the custody of the Department.

2. The findings of the home assessment shall be set forth in a written report provided to the court, the prosecutor, the child, and the guardian ad litem, if any, before the hearing. The court may require additional information as necessary to make an appropriate decision regarding the permanent guardianship.

D. 1. Before issuing an order of permanent guardianship, the court shall find by clear and convincing evidence all of the following:

a. the factual basis for establishing parental unfitness or unavailability to provide adequate care for the child,

b. termination of the rights of the parent is either not legally possible or not in the best interests of the child, or adoption is not the permanency plan for the child,

c. the child has resided with the permanent guardian for at least six (6) months, or the permanent guardian is a relative with whom the child has a relationship,

d. a permanent guardianship is in the best interests of the child, and

e. the proposed permanent guardian:

(1) is emotionally, mentally, physically, and financially suitable to become the permanent guardian,

(2) has expressly committed to remain the permanent guardian for the duration of the child's minority, and

(3) has expressly demonstrated a clear understanding of the financial implications of becoming a permanent guardian.

2. A decree of permanent guardianship divests the parents of legal custody or guardianship of the child, but is not a termination of parental rights.

E. Upon finding that grounds exist for a permanent guardianship, the court may also order visitation with the parent, siblings, or other relatives of the child if such contact would be in the child's best interests as well as any other provision necessary to provide for the child's continuing safety and well-being. The court shall order the parents to contribute to the support of the child pursuant to child-support guidelines as provided by law.

F. 1. An order appointing a permanent guardian shall:

a. require that the placement be reviewed within twelve (12) months after transfer, and may require the permanent guardian to submit any records or reports the court deems necessary for purposes of such review,

b. not require the Department to supervise the placement during such period of time,

c. not require periodic reviews by the court thereafter if the parties agree with the assent of the court that the reviews are not necessary to serve the best interests of the child, unless periodic reviews are otherwise required by the court.

2. Unless periodic reviews are required, the court may close the case, provided the order of permanent guardianship shall remain in full force and effect subject to the provisions of this Code.

Section 1-4-711. Modification or Termination of Permanent Guardianship

A. 1. A motion for modification or termination of a permanent guardianship may be filed by the permanent guardian, the child, or the prosecutor. A modification or termination may also be ordered by the court on its own initiative. An order for modification or termination of the permanent guardianship may be entered after notice and opportunity for hearing and shall be based on a finding that there has been a substantial change of material circumstances including, but not limited to, the following:

a. the parent of the child is presently able and willing to properly care for the child,

b. the permanent guardian of the child is unable to properly care for the child,

c. the child has been abused or neglected while in the care of the permanent guardian, or

d. the permanent guardian of the child is deceased.

2. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the child in any proceeding for modification or termination of a permanent guardianship.

B. 1. The court may modify or terminate the order granting permanent guardianship upon a finding by clear and convincing evidence that there has been a substantial change in material circumstances and that a modification or termination of the permanent guardianship is in the child's best interest.

2. When the modification or termination of the permanent guardianship results in the removal of the child from the home of the guardian, the court shall determine if the continuation of the child in the home of the guardian is contrary to the welfare of the child, and, if so, whether:

a. reasonable efforts have been made to prevent the removal of the child from the child's home, or

b. an absence of efforts to prevent the removal of the child from the child's home is reasonable because the removal is due to an emergency and is for the purpose of providing for the welfare of the child.

3. Where the termination of a permanent guardianship is granted for reason of the guardian's abuse, neglect, death, or inability to care for the child, the court shall order the child returned to the legal custody of the Department of Children and Family Services pending further hearing. The Department shall develop a new permanency plan on behalf of the child, which shall be presented to the court within thirty (30) days of the date the permanent guardianship is terminated.

4. Unless the parental rights of the child's parent or parents have been terminated, they shall be notified that the legal guardianship has been modified or terminated and shall be entitled to participate in the new permanency planning hearing where the court shall order a new permanency plan appropriate to meet the needs of the child.

5. The court may order that reunification services again be provided to the parent or parents if it is in the best interests of the child and may consider the parent or parents for custody of the child, with Department supervision, if the parent can prove by a preponderance of the evidence that conditions which previously existed at the time of the granting of the permanent guardianship order have been substantially corrected and that reunification is the best alternative for the child.

Section 1-4-712. Judicial Determinations Regarding Contrary to the Welfare, Reasonable Efforts to Prevent Removal, and Reasonable Efforts to Finalize Permanency Plan

A. The judicial determinations regarding contrary to the welfare, reasonable efforts to prevent removal, and reasonable efforts to finalize the permanency plan in effect, including judicial determinations that reasonable efforts are not required, must be explicitly documented and made on a case-by-case basis and so stated in the court order.

1. If the reasonable efforts and contrary to the welfare judicial determinations are not included as required in the court orders, a transcript of the court proceedings is the only other documentation accepted to verify that these required determinations have been made.

2. Court orders that reference or cite the Choctaw Nation Children's Code or any other law to substantiate judicial determinations are not acceptable, even if the law provides that a removal must be based on a judicial determination that remaining in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare or that removal can only be ordered after reasonable efforts have been made.

PART 8. POST-DISPOSITIONAL PLACEMENT AND MISCELLANEOUS HEARINGS

Section 1-4-801. Review of Order Releasing Child from Custody

A. At any hearing including, but not limited to, hearings conducted pursuant to Section 1-8-103 of this Title, where it is determined that a child in tribal custody will be released from tribal custody, the prosecutor or the attorney for the child may give verbal notice to the court of an objection to the order of the court and an intention to seek review of that order based on the grounds that the order of the court releasing the child from tribal custody creates a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child.

B. Upon giving such notice, the court issuing the custody order in question shall stay the custody order pending the filing of an application and completion of review as provided in this section. The prosecutor or attorney for the child shall file with the Court of Appeals a written application for review within three (3) judicial days from the custody order. If a written application for review is not filed within such time period, or if a written notice to the trial court withdrawing the objection is filed within that time period, the objection will be deemed abandoned and the stay shall expire.

C. Each application for review shall be assigned by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals to a judge of the Court of Appeals for review. The review shall be completed within five (5) judicial days of the filing of the written application for review. The review conducted by the reviewing judge shall address the question of whether releasing the child from tribal custody creates a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child. The reviewing judge shall review the record of the hearing and any other evidence deemed relevant by the reviewing judge. At the conclusion of the review, the reviewing judge shall issue findings of fact and conclusions of law and report them to the court issuing the custody order under review.

D. A finding by the reviewing judge that the order releasing the child from tribal custody creates a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child shall be controlling and the court issuing the order under review shall proceed to enter a different custody order. If the reviewing judge finds that the order under review does not create a serious risk of danger to the health or safety of the child and that the order is otherwise appropriate, then the court issuing the order under review shall release the stay, and the order shall be subject to appeal as provided in Section 1-5-101 of this Title. The failure of the court to issue the stay mandated by this section shall be subject to immediate mandamus to the Court of Appeals.

Section 1-4-802. Hearing to Determine Child's Placement or Release from Custody - Testimony

A. At any hearing pursuant to the provisions of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code for the purpose of determining the placement of a child or that a child in tribal custody is to be released from tribal custody, the court shall provide an opportunity to a representative of the Department of Children and Family Services, the present foster parent, the guardian ad litem, and the child, if of sufficient age as determined by the court, to present sworn testimony regarding the placement of the child or release of the child from tribal custody.

B. The court, the prosecutor, or the attorneys for the parties may cross examine the representative of the Department, the child, if of sufficient age as determined by the court, the present foster parents, and the guardian ad litem.

C. The court shall issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law. All hearings concerning such cases shall be on the record. The failure of any court to provide an opportunity to a representative of the Department or to the present foster parent, the guardian ad litem, and to the child, if of sufficient age as determined by the court, to present the sworn testimony pursuant to this section shall be subject to immediate mandamus to an appropriate court.

Section 1-4-803. Court Ordered Placement with Child and Family Services

If the court determines it would be in the best interests of a child, the court may place the child in the legal custody of the Department of Children and Family Services. Whenever a child is in the custody of the Department, the court shall not have the authority to order a specific placement of the child but shall have the authority to approve or disapprove a specific placement if it does not conform to statutory requirements and the best interests of the child.

Section 1-4-804. Notice when Child in Custody of Department Moved to Another Location - Time of Notice - Hearing

A. 1. The Department of Children and Family Services shall notify the post-adjudication review board, the prosecutor, the child's attorney, and the guardian ad litem of the child, if any, whenever a child in the custody of the Department is moved from one location to another.

2. The Department shall notify the foster family prior to movement of the child pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-805 of this Title.

3. The Department shall inform the guardian ad litem, if any, and the child's attorney of the specific location of the child.

B. The notification required by this section shall be made by the Department within a reasonable time after the Department is made aware of the need for movement, but in no event less than two (2) judicial days prior to movement unless an emergency exists. As used in this section, "emergency" means movement of a child that is:

1. Pursuant to an order of the court including, but not limited to, an order authorizing placement of a child with a parent or sibling;

2. Requested by the child-placing agency or foster parent of the child, and the request is for immediate removal of the child without delay or notice as provided by this section;

3. For emergency medical or mental health treatment;

4. For substantial noncompliance by a foster parent or child-placing agency with applicable placement standards and agreements such that child is in imminent danger; or

5. Due to a pending investigation of an allegation of abuse or neglect of a child by a foster parent or child-placing agency or other person residing in the foster family home.

C. The court, on its own motion, may hold, or any party receiving notice pursuant to this section shall be granted, an informal hearing concerning the reasons and necessity for moving the child, if requested in writing, within five (5) days following the receipt of notice.

Section 1-4-805. Child in Custody of Department or Child-Placing Agency for More Than Three Months – Removal - Change of Foster Placement

A. If a child placed in the custody of a child-placing agency or in the custody of the Department of Children and Family Services by the court has resided with a foster parent for three (3) or more months:

1. Except in an emergency, the Department or child-placing agency shall:

a. give a minimum of five (5) judicial days' advance notice to the foster parent and to the court before removing a child from such foster placement, and

b. at the time of such notification, provide the foster parent with a written statement of the reasons for removing a child;

2. An oral or written opinion may be provided to the court by a party or foster parent in support of, or in opposition to, any change in the child's placement that is planned or under consideration by the Department or child-placing agency;

3. The court shall resolve any concerns raised by a party or foster parent regarding a planned change in the child's placement during any hearing in which the concerns are brought to the attention of the court or the court may schedule an informal placement review hearing that shall be heard within fifteen (15) judicial days from the date the concerns are brought to the attention of the court. The court may, in its discretion, stay a proposed change in placement until the informal placement review hearing is held; and

4. The foster parent shall, at any hearing, be entitled to submit to the court written reports or present testimony concerning the strengths, needs, behavior, important experiences, and relationships of the child, in addition to such other information the court may request.

B. When a child is placed in the custody of the Department or any child-placing agency, the Department or child-placing agency shall have discretion to determine an appropriate foster placement for the child. Except as provided in this section, the Department or child-placing agency may remove a child in its custody from a foster placement whenever the Department or child-placing agency determines that removal is in the best interests of the deprived child.

C. 1. In order to promote stability for foster children and limit repeated movement of such children from one foster placement to another, the Department or child-placing agency, except as otherwise provided by this subsection, shall not change the foster home placement of a child without the approval of the court in the following circumstances:

a. the court or other party receiving notice from the Department of the movement of the child has filed a written request for an informal hearing, as provided in Section 1-4-804 of this Title,

b. the court has stayed a planned change in a child's placement pending a judicial review due to a verbal or written objection made by a party or by a foster parent during a court proceeding, or

c. a foster parent with whom the child has resided for more than six (6) months objects, in writing pursuant to the provisions of this subsection, after notice of the removal of the child by the Department or the child-placing agency.

2. The objection shall be filed with the court by the foster parent and served on the Department or child-placing agency within five (5) judicial days after receipt of the notice from the Department or child-placing agency regarding removal of the child. The court shall provide for notice to other parties in the case.

3. Timely filing and service of the objection shall stay removal of the child pending review of the court unless the Department's or child-placing agency's stated reason for removal is due to an emergency. As used in this paragraph, "emergency" means a removal that is:

a. pursuant to an order of the court entered during or following a hearing including, but not limited to, an order authorizing placement of a child with a parent or sibling,

b. at the request of the foster parent,

c. for emergency medical or behavioral health treatment,

d. due to substantial noncompliance by the foster parent with applicable contract requirements and agreements such that the health, safety, or welfare of the child is in imminent danger, or

e. due to a pending investigation of allegations of abuse or neglect of a child by a foster parent or other person residing in the foster family home.

4. The court shall conduct an informal placement review hearing within fifteen (15) judicial days on any objection filed by a party or foster parent pursuant to this section. The court may order that the child remain in or be returned to the home of the objecting foster parent if the court finds that the placement decision of the Department or child-placing agency was arbitrary, inconsistent with the child's permanency plan or not in the best interests of the child.

Section 1-4-806. Trial Home Reunification - Duties of Department of Children and Family Services - Termination

A. The court may order a trial home reunification by returning the child to the care of the parent or legal guardian from whom the child was removed for a period not to exceed six (6) months.

B. During the period of the trial home reunification, the Department of Children and Family Services shall:

1. Continue to have legal custody of the child, thereby permitting the Department to visit the child in the home of the parent, at school, in a child care facility, or any other setting the Department deems necessary and appropriate;

2. Continue to provide appropriate services to both the parent, if eligible, and the child during the period of the trial home reunification;

3. Terminate the trial home reunification, without court order or authorization, in order to protect the child's health, safety, or welfare and remove the child to foster care;

4. Advise the court and parties within three (3) judicial days of the termination of the trial home reunification when a visit is terminated by the Department without a court order; and

5. Prepare a report for the court when the trial home reunification is terminated whether by the Department or court order which describes the circumstances of the child during the trial home reunification and recommends appropriate orders, if any, for the court to enter to provide for the safety and stability of the child.

C. In the event a trial home reunification is terminated by the Department by removing the child to foster care without prior court order or authorization, the court shall conduct a hearing within fifteen (15) days of receiving notice of the termination of the trial home reunification by the Department and shall determine whether a continuation of the child in the child's home or with the child's caretaker is contrary to the welfare of the child and whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent the removal of the child from the trial home reunification.

Section 1-4-807. Periodic Review Hearings - Review of Case Regarding Child Alleged or Adjudicated to be Deprived - Notice to Foster Parent, Pre-Adoptive Parent, or Relative - Findings

A. 1. Every case regarding a child alleged or adjudicated to be deprived shall be reviewed by the court at a hearing no later than six (6) months from the date of the child's removal from the home and at least once every six (6) months thereafter until permanency is achieved or the court otherwise terminates jurisdiction except as otherwise set forth in paragraph 2 of this subsection. A review hearing may be held concurrently with a permanency hearing.

2. When the Department of Children and Family Services has documented a compelling reason why a petition to terminate parental rights to a child is not in the best interests of the child that is based upon a consideration that the child is presently not capable of functioning in a family setting, the court shall reevaluate the status of the child every ninety (90) days until there is a final determination that the child cannot be placed in a family setting.

3. At any time during the pendency of the case, any party may request the court to review the case. If granted, the requesting party shall serve notice on all parties of the date and time of the hearing.

B. If a foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative is currently providing care for a child, the Department shall give the foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative notice of a proceeding concerning the child. A foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative providing care for a child has the right to be heard at the proceeding. Except when allowed to intervene, the foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative providing care for the child is not considered a party to the juvenile court proceeding solely because of notice and the right to be heard at the proceeding.

C. The court shall receive all evidence helpful in deciding the issues before the court including, but not limited to, oral and written reports, which may be admitted and relied upon to the extent of their probative value, even though not competent for purposes of an adjudicatory hearing.

D. At each review hearing the court shall:

1. Determine and include the following in its orders:
 - a. whether the individualized service plan, services, and placement meet the special needs and best interests of the child with the child's health, safety, and educational needs specifically addressed,
 - b. whether there is a need for the continued placement of the child,
 - c. whether the current permanency plan for the child remains the appropriate plan to meet the health, safety, and best interests of the child,
 - d. whether the services set forth in the individualized service plan and the responsibilities of the parties need to be clarified or modified due to the availability of additional information or changed circumstances or as the court determines to be in the best interests of the child and necessary for the correction of the conditions that led to the adjudication of the child,
 - e. whether the terms of visitation need to be modified, including the visitation with siblings if separated

f. the time frame that should be followed to achieve reunification or other permanent plan for the child,

g. whether reasonable efforts have been made to provide for the safe return of the child to the child's own home. If the court determines or has previously determined that reasonable efforts are not required pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-809 of this Title, or that continuation of reasonable efforts to reunite the child with the child's family is inconsistent with the permanency plan for the child, the court shall determine if reasonable efforts are being made to place the child in a timely manner in accordance with the permanency plan and determine the steps necessary to finalize permanency for the child,

h. where appropriate, when the child is sixteen (16) years of age or older, whether services are being provided that will assist the child in making the transition from foster care to independent living. The court shall inquire or cause inquiry to be made of the child regarding any proposed independent living plan,

i. whether the nature and extent of services being provided the child and parent or parents of the child are adequate and shall order that additional services be provided or studies, assessments, or evaluations be conducted, if necessary, to ensure the safety of the child and to protect the child from further physical, mental, or emotional harm, or to correct the conditions that led to the adjudication,

j. whether, in accordance with the safety or well-being of any child, reasonable efforts have been made to:

(1) place siblings, who have been removed, together in the same foster care, guardianship, or adoptive placement, and

(2) provide for frequent visitation or other ongoing interaction in the case of siblings who have been removed and who are not placed together, and

k. whether, during the ninety-day period immediately prior to the date on which the child in the custody of the Department will attain eighteen (18) years of age, the Department and, as appropriate, other representatives of the child are providing the child with assistance and support in developing an appropriate transition plan that is personalized at the direction of the child, that includes specific options on housing, health insurance, education, local opportunities for mentors and continuing support services, and work force supports and employment services, and is as detailed as the child may elect;

2. Consider placement options inside and outside of the Choctaw Nation for the child; and

3. Determine the safety of the child and consider fully all relevant prior and current information including, but not limited to, the report or reports submitted pursuant to Sections 1-4-805 and 1-4-808 of this Title;

E. In making its findings, the court shall consider the following:

1. Whether compliance with the individualized service plan has occurred, including whether the Department has provided care that is consistent with the health, safety, and educational needs of the child while in an out-of-home placement;

2. The extent of progress that has been made toward alleviating or correcting the conditions that caused the child to be adjudicated deprived;

3. Whether the child should be returned to a parent or parents and whether or not the health, safety, and welfare of the child can be protected by a parent or parents if returned home; and

4. An appropriate permanency plan for the child, including concurrent planning when applicable, pursuant to Section 1-4-706 of this Title.

Section 1-4-808. Written Report for Review Hearing - Scope of Report - Child's Access to Counsel

A. The Department of Children and Family Services or the agency having supervision of the case or, if the child has been removed from the custody of the child's parents, the Department or the agency or child-placing agency having custody of the child shall cause to be prepared for each review hearing required herein a written report concerning each child who is the subject of review.

B. The report shall include, but not be limited to:

1. A summary of the physical, mental, and emotional condition of the child, the conditions existing in the out-of-home placement where the child has been placed, and the adjustment of the child thereto;

2. A report on the progress of the child in school and, if the child has been placed outside the child's home, the visitation exercised by the parents of the child or other persons authorized by the court;

3. Services being provided to a child sixteen (16) years of age or older to assist in the transition from out-of-home care or other community placement to independent living;

4. When the Department is responsible for supervision of the child or is the legal custodian of the child, a description of:

a. progress on the part of the parent or parents to correct the conditions which caused the child to be adjudicated deprived,

b. changes that still need to occur and the specific actions the parents would take to make the changes, and

c. services and assistance that have been offered or provided to the parents since the previous hearing and the services which are needed in the future;

5. A description of the placements of the child by number and type with dates of entry and exit, reasons for the placement or change in placement, and a statement about the success or lack of success of each placement;

6. The efforts of the Department to locate the parents and involve them in the planning for the child if the parents are not currently communicating with the Department;

7. Compliance by the Department, as applicable, and the parent with the court's orders concerning the individualized service plans, previous court orders, and the Department recommendations;

8. Whether the current placement is appropriate for the child, its distance from the home of the child, and whether it is the least restrictive, most family-like placement available;

9. A proposed timetable for the return of the child to the home or other permanent placement; and

10. Specific recommendations, giving reasons whether:

a. trial reunification should be approved by the court,

b. trial reunification should be continued to a date certain as specified by the court,

c. the child should remain in or be placed outside of the home of the parent or legal guardian of the child, or

d. the child should remain in the current placement when the permanency plan is other than reunification with the parent or legal guardian of the child.

C. The attorney representing a child and the guardian ad litem of a child, if any, whose case is being reviewed may submit a report to the court for presentation at the review hearing to assist the court in reviewing the placement or status of the child. The legal custodian shall not deny to a child the right of access to counsel and shall facilitate such access.

Section 1-4-809. Permanency Hearing Upon Finding that Reasonable Efforts to Prevent Removal of Child from Home or Reunify Child with Family not Required

A. At any time prior to or following the adjudicatory hearing the court, on its own motion or upon the motion of a party, may find that reasonable efforts to prevent the removal of a child from home or to reunify the child and family are not required if the court determines, based upon a preponderance of the evidence, that:

1. The parent or legal guardian of the child, who is an infant, age twelve (12) months or younger, has abandoned the child;
2. The parent or legal guardian of the child has:
 - a. committed murder or manslaughter of any child,
 - b. aided or abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit the murder or manslaughter of any child,
 - c. committed a felony assault upon any child that resulted in the child receiving serious bodily injury, or
 - d. subjected any child to aggravated circumstances including, but not limited to, heinous and shocking abuse or heinous and shocking neglect; or
3. The parental rights of a parent to the child's sibling have been terminated involuntarily.

B. The court shall conduct a permanency hearing within thirty (30) days of a determination by the court that any of the conditions specified in subsection A of this section exist. Reasonable efforts shall be made to place the child in a timely manner in accordance with the permanency plan.

Section 1-4-810. Child in Out-of-Home Care for Twelve Months or Longer – Meeting - Report Prior to Permanency Hearing - Proposed Permanency Plan

A. 1. When a child has been in out-of-home care for twelve (12) months or longer, the court may require that the Department of Children and Family Services facilitate a meeting held no later than thirty (30) days prior to the permanency hearing to discuss recommendations regarding the child's permanency plan that will be reported to and reviewed by the court.

2. The court may direct that the assigned guardian ad litem, which may be a court- appointed special advocate, if any, a judicial case manager, or the Department make arrangements for the meeting. The foster parents of the child, the parents of the child, or the parents' attorney, a post-adjudication review board member, the guardian ad litem who has been appointed to the case, the child, and others as appropriate, and the child's attorney shall be contacted to assist in the preparation of the report; provided, however, persons determined not to require reasonable efforts pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-809 of this Title shall not be required to attend.

B. 1. Prior to a permanency hearing, the Department shall prepare a report regarding the child for court review and shall provide a copy of the report to the court and the parties not less than three (3) judicial days prior to the permanency hearing

2. The report shall include the proposed permanency plan by the Department, the efforts by the Department to effectuate the permanency plan for the child, address the options for the permanent placement of the child, and examine the reasons for excluding higher priority options; however, if a child has attained fourteen (14) years of age, the permanency plan developed for the child, and any revision or addition to the plan, shall be developed in consultation with the child and, at the option of the child, with not more than two (2) members of the permanency planning team who are selected by the child and who are not a foster parent of, or caseworker for, the child, except that the Department may reject an individual so selected by the child if the Department has good cause to believe that the individual would not act in the best interests of the child, and one (1) individual so selected by the child may be designated to be the child's advisor and, as necessary, advocate, with respect to the application of the reasonable and prudent standard to the child.

3. Unless a permanency hearing has been conducted, the Department, as applicable, shall contact the foster parents of the child, the parents of the child, or the parents' attorney, a post-adjudication review board member, the guardian ad litem, or the court appointed special advocate who has been appointed to the case, and the child's attorney to assist in the preparation of the report.

C. The up-to-date and accurate report shall also contain, but not be limited to, the following information, if relevant:

1. Efforts and progress demonstrated by the child's parent to complete an individual treatment and service plan;
2. Status of the child, including the child's behavioral, physical, and emotional health;
3. A recommendation regarding whether the child's current permanency goal should be continued or modified, the reasons therefor, and the anticipated date for meeting the goal; and
4. A recommendation regarding whether the placement of the child should be extended and the reasons for the recommendation.

D. The child's attorney, the parents or parents' attorney, the foster parent, the post-adjudicatory review board member, the guardian ad litem, or the court appointed special advocate of the child may submit an additional informational reports to the court for review.

Section 1-4-811. Permanency Hearing

A. 1. The court shall conduct a permanency hearing to determine the appropriate permanency goal for the child and to order completion of all steps necessary to finalize the permanent plan. The hearing shall be held no later than:

- a. six (6) months after placing the child in out-of-home placement and every six (6) months thereafter, and
- b. thirty (30) days after a determination by the court that reasonable efforts to return a child to either parent are not required pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-809 of this Title.

2. A child shall be considered to have entered out-of-home placement on the earlier of:

- a. the adjudication date, or

b. the date that is sixty (60) days after the date on which the child is removed from the home.

3. Subsequent permanency hearings shall be held at least every six (6) months for any child who continues to be in an out-of-home placement. At the request of a party, the Department of Children and Family Services, or on the motion of the court, the initial and subsequent permanency hearings may be held more frequently.

4. At each permanency hearing, the court may consider testimony of any person who has relevant information about the status of the child or the status of the treatment plan. All parties shall have the opportunity to present evidence and to cross-examine witnesses. The rules of evidence shall not apply to permanency hearings, and all evidence helpful in determining the proper permanency goal shall be considered including, but not limited to, oral and written reports, which may be admitted and may be relied upon to the extent of their probative value, even though not competent for the purposes of the adjudicatory hearing.

B. A permanency hearing may be held concurrently with a dispositional or review hearing.

C. If a foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative is currently providing care for a child, the Department shall give the foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative notice of a proceeding concerning the child. A foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative providing care for a child has the right to be heard at the proceeding. Except when allowed to intervene, the foster parent, pre-adoptive parent, or relative providing care for the child is not considered a party to the juvenile court proceeding solely because of notice and the right to be heard at the proceeding.

D. At the hearing, the court shall determine or review the continued appropriateness of the permanency plan of the child and whether a change in the plan is necessary; the date by which the goal of permanency for the child is scheduled to be achieved, and whether the current placement of the child continues to be the most suitable for the health, safety, and welfare of the child. The court shall also, in an age-appropriate manner, inquire or cause inquiry to be made of the child regarding the proposed permanency plan, and if the child is age sixteen (16) or older, the independent living plan.

E. A transcript shall be made of each permanency hearing or the proceeding shall be memorialized by appropriate written findings of facts, and the court having considered all relevant information shall order one of the following permanency plans for the child:

1. Reunification with the parent, parents, or legal guardian of the child where:

a. reunification can be expected to occur within an established time frame that is consistent with the developmental needs of the child, and

b. the health and safety of the child can be adequately safeguarded if returned home;

2. Placement for adoption after the rights of the parents have been terminated or after a petition has been filed to terminate parental rights;

3. Placement with a person who will be the permanent guardian of the child and is able to adequately and appropriately safeguard the health, safety, and welfare of the child; or

4. Placement in the legal custody of the Department under a planned permanent living arrangement, provided that there are compelling reasons documented by the Department and presented to the court that none of the above described plans is appropriate for the health, safety, and welfare of the child.

F. In addition to the findings required under subsection E of this section, the court shall also make written findings related to:

1. Whether the Department has made reasonable efforts to finalize the permanency plan that is in effect for the child and a summary of the efforts the Department has made;

2. If the permanency plan is for the child to remain in out-of-home care, whether the child's out-of-home placement continues to be appropriate and in the best interests of the child;

3. If the current placement is not expected to be permanent, the court's projected timetable for return home, or for placement in an adoptive home with a guardian, or another planned permanent living arrangement; and

4. Whether reasonable efforts, in accordance with the safety or well-being of any child, have been made to:

a. place siblings, who have been removed, together in the same foster care, guardianship, or adoptive placement, and

b. provide for frequent visitation or other ongoing interaction in the case of siblings who have been removed and who are not placed together.

G. The court may make appropriate orders to ensure timely implementation of the permanency plan and shall order the plan to be accomplished within a specified period of time.

H. In the case of any child for whom a planned permanent living arrangement is the permanency plan, the follow case plan and case system review procedures shall apply:

1. At each permanency hearing, the Department shall document the intensive, ongoing, and, as of the date of the hearing, unsuccessful efforts made by the agency to return the child home or secure a placement for the child with a fit and willing relative (including adult siblings), a legal guardian, or an adoptive parent, including through efforts that utilize search technology (including social media) to find biological family members for the children;

2. At each permanency hearing, the court or administrative body appointed or approved by the court conducting the hearing on the permanency plan for the child must:

- a. Ask the child about the desired permanency outcome for the child,
 - b. Make a judicial determination explaining why, as of the date of the hearing, another planned permanent living arrangement is the best permanency plan for the child and provide compelling reasons why it continues to not be in the best interests of the child to:
 - (1) Return home;
 - (2) Be placed for adoption;
 - (3) Be placed with a legal guardian; or
 - (4) Be placed with a fit and willing relative.
3. At each permanency hearing, the Department shall document the steps it is taking to ensure that:
- a. the child's foster family home or child care institution is following the reasonable and prudent parent standard; and
 - b. The child has regular, ongoing opportunities to engage in age or developmentally appropriate activities (including by consulting with the child in an age-appropriate manner about the opportunities of the child to participate in the activities).

Section 1-4-812. Eligibility of Foster Parent to Adopt - Factors to be Considered by Court

A. During any permanency hearing, if it is determined by the court that a child should be placed for adoption, the foster parent of the child shall be considered eligible to adopt the child, if the foster parent meets established eligibility requirements pursuant to this section.

B. If the child has resided with a foster parent for at least twelve (12) months, the court shall give great weight to the foster parent in the adoption consideration for the child unless there is an existing loving emotional bond with a relative of the child by blood or marriage who is willing, able, and eligible to adopt the child.

C. In making such determination, the court shall consider whether the child has become integrated into the foster family to the extent that the child's familial identity is with the foster family, and whether the foster family is able and willing permanently to treat the child as a member of the family. The court shall consider, without limitation:

1. The love, affection, and other emotional ties existing between the child and the relatives of the child, and the child's ties with the foster family;
2. The capacity and disposition of the child's relatives as compared with that of the foster family to give the child love, affection, and guidance and to continue the education of the child;

3. The length of time a child has lived in a stable, satisfactory foster home and the desirability of the child's continuing to live in that environment;
4. The physical and mental health of the relatives of the child as compared with that of the foster family;
5. The experiences of the child in the home, school, and community, both when with the parents from whom the child was removed and when with the foster family;
6. The age and preference of the child;
7. The long-term best interests of the child; and
8. Any other factor considered by the court to be relevant to a particular placement of the child.

Section 1-4-813. Agreements and Court Orders Permitting Post-Adoption Contact between Birth Relatives and the Child - Steps to Facilitate Ongoing Sibling Contact or Visitation

A. 1. When the court, pursuant to Section 1-4-812 of this Title, finds that a deprived child should be placed for adoption, nothing in the adoption laws of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma shall be construed to prevent the petitioners for adoption of the child from voluntarily entering into a written agreement with the birth relatives, including a birth parent, to permit post-adoption contact between the birth relatives and the child. The post-adoption contact agreement shall be issued by the court in a separate instrument at the time an adoption decree is entered if the court finds the agreement is voluntary, does not pose a threat to the safety of the child, and is in the best interests of the child.

2. For purposes of this section, "birth relative" includes members of the extended family, who shall be a person who has reached eighteen (18) years of age and who is the child's great-grandparent, grandparent, aunt or uncle, brother or sister, brother-in-law or sister-in-law, niece, nephew, or first or second cousin or stepparent.

3. If a child who is separated from a sibling is ordered to be placed for adoption, the court shall order that the Department shall take all of the following steps to facilitate ongoing sibling contact or visitation:

a. provide information to prospective adoptive parents about the importance of sibling relationships to the adopted child and counseling on methods for maintaining sibling relationships,

b. provide prospective adoptive parents with information about siblings of the child; provided, the address where the siblings reside shall not be disclosed unless authorized by a court order for good cause shown, and

c. encourage prospective adoptive parents to make a plan for facilitating post-adoptive contact between the child who is the subject of a petition for adoption and any siblings of that child.

4. The terms of the post-adoption agreement executed under this section shall be limited to, but need not include, the following if the child has an existing relationship with the birth relative:

- a. provisions for visitation between the child and the birth relatives,
- b. provisions for contact between birth relatives and the child or an adoptive parent, or both,
- c. provisions for the adoptive parent to facilitate sibling contact or visitation, and
- d. provisions for the sharing of information about the child.

5. The terms of any post-adoption agreement shall be limited to the sharing of information about the child if the child did not have an existing relationship with the birth relative.

B. 1. A post-adoption agreement is not legally enforceable unless the terms of the agreement are contained in a written court order entered in accordance with this section.

2. An order must be sought and shall be filed in the adoption action. The order shall be issued by separate instrument at the time an adoption decree is entered.

3. The court shall not enter a proposed order unless the terms of the order have been approved in writing by the prospective adoptive parents, the birth relative who desires to be a party to the agreement, the child, if twelve (12) years of age or older, and, if the child is in the custody of the Department of Children and Family Services, a representative of the Department. The child shall be represented by an attorney for purposes of consent to the post-adoption agreement.

4. The post-adoption agreement approved by the court regarding sibling contact or visitation shall be provided by the Department to the adoptive parent or parents, foster parent, relative caretaker, legal guardian of the child, and siblings, or others as necessary to facilitate the sibling contact or visitation.

C. Failure to comply with the terms of the post-adoption agreement as ordered by the court pursuant to this section shall not be grounds for:

- 1. Setting aside an adoption decree;
- 2. Revocation of a written consent to an adoption after that consent has become irrevocable;

3. An action for citation of indirect contempt of court; and
4. Preventing the adoptive parent or parents of the child from changing residence within or outside the tribe.

D. 1. Although the entry of the decree of adoption terminates the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over the child, the enforcement of the post-adoption agreement and subsequent order shall be under the continuing jurisdiction of the court granting the petition for adoption.

2. The court may not order compliance with the agreement absent a finding that the party seeking the enforcement participated in good faith in mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings regarding the conflict prior to the filing of the enforcement action, and that the enforcement is in the best interests of the child. Documentary evidence or offers of proof may serve as the basis for the court's decision regarding enforcement. No testimony or evidentiary hearing shall be required.

3. The prevailing party may be awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs. All costs and fees of mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings shall be borne by each party, excluding the child.

E. A post-adoption agreement may be modified or terminated only if the court finds that the modification or termination is necessary to serve the best interests of the child, and is agreed to by all parties, including the child if the child is twelve (12) years of age or older at the time of the requested modification or termination.

Section 1-4-814. Modification of Decrees or Orders

Any decree or order made pursuant to the provisions of the Choctaw Nation Children's Code may be modified by the court at any time; provided, however, that an order terminating parental rights shall not be modified.

PART 9. TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

Section 1-4-901. Petition or Motion by prosecutor or Child's Attorney – Duty of Prosecutor

A. A petition or motion for termination of parental rights may be filed independently by either the prosecutor or the attorney of a child alleged to be or adjudicated deprived.

B. A petition or motion for termination of parental rights shall be filed by the prosecutor for those petitions or motions required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-902 of this Title.

C. If a child's attorney files a petition or motion for the termination of the parental rights of the parents of the child, the prosecutor shall join in the petition or motion for those petitions or motions required to be filed by the prosecutor pursuant to the provisions of Section 1-4-902 of this Title, unless an exception to filing exists.

D. Once a petition or motions for termination of parental rights has been filed by the prosecutor, the Department shall concurrently begin to identify, recruit, process, and approve a qualified adoptive family for the child.

Section 1-4-902. Conditions Requiring Prosecutor to File Petition or Motion for Termination of Parent-Child Relationship

A. The prosecutor shall file a petition or motion for termination of the parent-child relationship and parental rights with respect to a child or shall join in the petition or motion, if filed by the child's attorney, in any of the following circumstances:

1. Prior to the end of the fifteenth (15) month when a child has been placed in foster care by the Department of Children and Family Services for fifteen (15) of the most recent twenty-two (22) months. For purposes of this paragraph, a child shall be considered to have entered foster care on the earlier of:

- a. the date of adjudication as a deprived child, or
 - b. the date that is sixty (60) days after the date on which the child is removed from the home;
2. No later than sixty (60) days after a child has been judicially determined to be an abandoned infant;
3. No later than sixty (60) days after a court has determined that reasonable efforts to reunite are not required due to a felony conviction of a parent who has:
- a. committed the murder of any child or has aided or abetted, attempted, conspired in, or solicited the commission of the murder of any child,
 - b. committed voluntary manslaughter of another child of the parent, or has aided or abetted, attempted, conspired in, or solicited the commission of voluntary manslaughter of any child, or
 - c. committed a felony assault that has resulted in serious bodily injury to the child or to any child.

B. If any of the following conditions exist, the prosecutor is not required to file a petition as provided in subsection A of this section for a deprived child:

1. At the option of the Department, or by order of the court, the child is properly being cared for by a relative;
2. The Department has documented a compelling reason for determining that filing a petition to terminate parental rights would not serve the best interests of the child that may include consideration of any of the following circumstances:

a. the parents or legal guardians have maintained a relationship with the child, and the child would benefit from continuing this relationship,

b. the child, who is twelve (12) years or older, objects to the termination of the parent-child legal relationship,

c. the foster parents of the child are unable to adopt the child because of exceptional circumstances which do not include an unwillingness to accept legal responsibility for the child, but are willing and capable of providing the child with a stable and permanent environment, and the removal of the child from the physical custody of the foster parents would be seriously detrimental to the emotional well-being of the child because the child has substantial psychological ties to the foster parents,

d. the child is not capable of achieving stability if placed in a family setting, or

e. the child is an unaccompanied, refugee minor, and the situation regarding the child involves international legal issues or compelling foreign policy issues; or

3. The tribe has not provided to the family of the child, consistent with the time period in the tribe case plan, services that the tribe deems necessary for the safe return of the child to the child's home, if reasonable efforts are required to be made with respect to the child.

Section 1-4-903. Adoption as a Permanency Plan - Good Cause not to Terminate Parental Rights

If the court finds from the information presented by the Department of Children and Family Services that the permanency plan for the child should be adoption, the court may order the prosecutor to show cause why it should not file a petition or motion to terminate the parent-child legal relationship pursuant to this section. Good cause may include, but need not be limited to, any of the following conditions:

1. At the option of the Department or by order of the court, the child is properly being cared for by a relative;

2. The Department has documented a compelling reason for determining that filing a petition to terminate parental rights would not serve the best interests of the child; or

3. The tribe has not provided to the family of the child, consistent with the time period in the tribal case plan, such services as the tribe deems necessary for the safe return of the child to the child's home, if reasonable efforts are required to be made with respect to the child.

Section 1-4-904. Termination of Parental Rights in Case Involving Petition for Deprived Status of Child

A. A court shall not terminate the rights of a parent to a child unless:

1. The child has been adjudicated to be deprived either prior to, or concurrently, with a proceeding to terminate parental rights; and

2. Termination of parental rights is in the best interests of the child.

B. The court may terminate the rights of a parent to a child based upon the following legal grounds:

1. Upon the duly acknowledged written consent of a parent, who voluntarily agrees to termination of parental rights,

a. the voluntary consent for termination of parental rights shall be signed under oath and recorded before a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction and accompanied by the judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the consent were fully explained in detail in English and were fully understood by the parent or that the consent was translated into a language that the parent understood.

b. a voluntary consent for termination of parental rights is effective when it is signed and may not be revoked except upon clear and convincing evidence that the consent was executed by reason of fraud or duress.

2. A finding that a parent who is entitled to custody of the child has abandoned the child;

3. A finding that the child is an abandoned infant;

4. A finding that the parent of a child:

a. has voluntarily placed physical custody of the child with the Department of Children and Family Services or with a child-placing agency for out-of-home placement,

b. has not complied with the placement agreement, and

c. has not demonstrated during such period a firm intention to resume physical custody of the child or to make permanent legal arrangements for the care of the child;

5. A finding that:

a. the parent has failed to correct the condition which led to the deprived adjudication of the child, and

b. the parent has been given at least three (3) months to correct the condition;

6. A finding that:

a. the rights of the parent to another child have been terminated, and b the conditions that led to the prior termination of parental rights have not been corrected;

7. A finding that a parent who does not have custody of the child has, for at least six (6) out of the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the filing of the petition for termination of parental rights, willfully failed or refused or has neglected to contribute to the support of the child:

a. as specified by an order entered by a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating the duty, amount, and manner of support, or

b. where an order of child support does not exist, according to the financial ability of the parent to contribute to the child's support.

Incidental or token support shall not be construed or considered in establishing whether a parent has maintained or contributed to the support of the child;

8. A finding that the parent has been convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction in any tribal, state or federal court of any of the following acts:

a. permitting a child to participate in pornography,

b. rape, or rape by instrumentation,

c. lewd molestation of a child under sixteen (16) years of age,

d. child abuse or neglect,

e. enabling child abuse or neglect,

f. causing the death of a child as a result of the physical or sexual abuse or chronic abuse or chronic neglect of the child,

g. causing the death of a sibling of the child as a result of the physical or sexual abuse or chronic abuse or chronic neglect of the child's sibling,

h. murder of any child or aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit murder of any child,

i. voluntary manslaughter of any child,

j. a felony assault that has resulted in serious bodily injury to the child or another child of the parents, or

k. murder or voluntary manslaughter of the child's parent or aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit murder of the child's parent;

9. A. That the parent has abused or neglected the child or a sibling of the child or failed to protect the child or a sibling of the child from abuse or neglect that is heinous or shocking;

10. A. Finding that the parent has previously abused or neglected the child or a sibling of the child or failed to protect the child, or a sibling of the child from abuse or neglect, and the child or a sibling of the child has been subjected to subsequent abuse;

11. A finding that the child was conceived as a result of rape perpetrated by the parent whose rights are sought to be terminated;

12. A finding that the parent whose rights are sought to be terminated is incarcerated, and the continuation of parental rights would result in harm to the child based on consideration of the following factors, among others:

- a. the duration of incarceration and its detrimental effect on the parent/child relationship,
- b. any previous convictions resulting in involuntary confinement in a secure facility,
- c. the parent's history of criminal behavior, including crimes against children,
- d. the age of the child,
- e. any evidence of abuse or neglect or failure to protect from abuse or neglect of the child or siblings of the child by the parent,
- f. the current relationship between the parent and the child, and
- g. the manner in which the parent has exercised parental rights and duties in the past.

Provided, that the incarceration of a parent shall not in and of itself be sufficient to deprive a parent of parental rights;

13. A finding that all of the following exist:

- a. the parent has a diagnosed cognitive disorder, an extreme physical incapacity, or a medical condition, including behavioral health which renders the parent incapable of adequately and appropriately exercising parental rights, duties, and responsibilities within a reasonable time considering the age of the child, and
- b. allowing the parent to have custody would cause the child actual harm or harm in the near future.

A parent's refusal or pattern of noncompliance with treatment, therapy, medication, or assistance from outside the home can be used as evidence that the parent is incapable of adequately and appropriately exercising parental rights, duties, and responsibilities.

A finding that a parent has a diagnosed cognitive disorder, an extreme physical incapacity, or a medical condition, including behavioral health or substance dependency shall not in and of itself deprive the parent of parental rights; and

14. A finding that:

a. the condition that led to the deprived adjudication has been the subject of a previous deprived adjudication of this child or a sibling of this child, and

b. the parent has been given an opportunity to correct the conditions which led to the determination of the initial deprived child.

C. An order directing the termination of parental rights is a final appealable order.

D. The provisions of this section shall not apply to adoption proceedings and actions to terminate parental rights which do not involve a petition for deprived status of the child. Such proceedings and actions shall be governed by the Choctaw Nation Adoption Code.

Section 1-4-905. Notice of Hearing to Terminate Parental Rights

A. 1. Prior to a hearing on the petition or motion for termination of parental rights, notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing and a copy of the petition or motion to terminate parental rights shall be served upon the parent who is the subject of termination proceeding by personal delivery, by certified mail, or by publication as provided for in Section 1-4-304 of this Title.

2. The notice shall contain the following or substantially similar language:

“FAILURE TO PERSONALLY APPEAR AT THIS HEARING CONSTITUTES CONSENT TO THE TERMINATION OF YOUR PARENTAL RIGHTS TO THIS CHILD OR THESE CHILDREN. IF YOU FAIL TO APPEAR ON THE DATE AND TIME SPECIFIED, YOU MAY LOSE ALL LEGAL RIGHTS AS A PARENT TO THE CHILD OR CHILDREN NAMED IN THE PETITION OR MOTION ATTACHED TO THIS NOTICE.”

3. Notice shall be served upon the parent not less than fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the hearing.

4. Any actual notice of termination of parental rights shall state that the duty of the parent to support his or her minor child will not be terminated except for adoption as provided by paragraph 3 of subsection B of Section 1-4-906 of this Title.

5. The failure of a parent who has been served with notice under this section to personally appear at the hearing shall constitute consent to the termination of parental rights by the parent given notice. When a parent who appears voluntarily or pursuant to notice is directed by the court to personally appear for a subsequent hearing on a specified date, time and location, the failure of that parent to personally appear, or to instruct his or her attorney to proceed in absentia at the trial, shall constitute consent by that parent to termination of his or her parental rights.

B. 1. The court shall have the power to vacate an order terminating parental rights if the parent whose parental rights were terminated pursuant to subsection A of this section files a motion to vacate the order within thirty (30) days after the order is filed with the court clerk.

2. Notice of the motion shall be given to all the parties and their attorneys and the court shall set the matter for hearing expeditiously.

3. The burden of proof is on the defaulting parent to show that he or she had no actual notice of the hearing, or due to unavoidable casualty or misfortune, the parent was prevented from either contacting his or her attorney, if any, or from attending the hearing or trial.

4. If the motion to vacate the order terminating parental rights due to a failure to appear is found to have merit, the statutory consent shall be set aside and a new trial conducted.

Section 1-4-906. Effect of Termination of Parental Rights

A. The termination of parental rights terminates the parent-child relationship, including:

1. The parent's right to the custody of the child;
2. The parent's right to visit the child;
3. The parent's right to control the child's training and education;
4. The necessity for the parent to consent to the adoption of the child;
5. The parent's right to the earnings of the child; and
6. The parent's right to inherit from or through the child.

Provided, that nothing herein shall in any way affect the right of the child to inherit from the parent.

B. 1. Except for adoptions as provided in paragraph 3 of this subsection, termination of parental rights shall not terminate the duty of either parent to support his or her minor child.

2. Any order terminating parental rights shall indicate that the duty of the parent to support his or her minor child will not be terminated unless the child is subsequently adopted as provided by paragraph 3 of this subsection.

3. Child support orders shall be entered by the court that terminates parental rights and shall remain in effect until the court of termination receives notice from the placing agency that a final decree of adoption has been entered and then issues an order terminating child support and dismissing the case.

Section 1-4-907. Placement with Individual or Agency - Authority to Consent to Adoption - Effect of Final Decree of Adoption

If the court terminates the rights of a parent and places the child with an individual or agency, the court may vest in such individual or agency authority to consent to the adoption of the child. Provided, that when the court places the child with the Department of Children and Family Services, it shall vest the Department with authority to place the child and, upon notice to the court that an adoption petition has been filed concerning the child, vest the Department with authority to consent to the adoption of the child, and the jurisdiction of the committing court shall terminate upon a final decree of adoption.

Section 1-4-908. Permanency Hearing - Continued Jurisdiction over the Child

A. When parental rights are not terminated as a result of a trial, the court shall set the matter for a permanency hearing within thirty (30) days.

B. The failure of parental rights to be terminated at trial shall not deprive the court of its continuing jurisdiction over the child, nor shall it require reunification of the child with the parent if the child has been adjudicated to be deprived.

Section 1-4-909. Request by Child for Reinstatement of Terminated Parental Rights

A. A child may, by application, request the court to reinstate the previously terminated parental rights of his or her parent under the following circumstances:

1. The child was previously found to be a deprived child;
2. The parent's rights were terminated in a proceeding under the Choctaw Nation Children's Code;
3. The child has not achieved his or her permanency plan within three (3) years of a final order of termination; and
4. The child is at least fifteen (15) years old at the time the application is filed.

B. A child shall be represented during the proceeding and shall be provided independent counsel.

C. The application shall be signed by the child as well as the child's attorney.

D. If, after a preliminary hearing to consider the parent's apparent fitness and interest in reinstatement of parental rights, the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the best interests of the child may be served by reinstatement of parental rights, the court shall order that a hearing on the merits of the motion be held.

E. The court shall cause prior notice to be given to the Department of Children and Family Services, the child's attorney, and the child. The court shall also order the Department or the child's attorney to give prior notice of any hearing to:

1. The former parent of the child whose parental rights are the subject of the application;
2. The current foster parent or relative guardian of the child;
3. The guardian ad litem of the child, if any; and
4. The child's tribe, if applicable.

F. The application of the child shall be dismissed if the parent cannot be located.

G. The court shall conditionally grant the application if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the child has not and is not likely to imminently achieve his or her permanency plan and that reinstatement of parental rights is in the child's best interest. In determining whether reinstatement is in the child's best interest, the court shall consider, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Whether the parent whose rights are to be reinstated is a fit parent and has remedied the conditions as provided in the record of the prior termination proceedings and prior termination order;

2. The age and maturity of the child, and the ability of the child to express his or her preference;

3. Whether the reinstatement of parental rights will present a risk to the health, safety, or welfare of the child; and

4. Other material changes in circumstances, if any, that may have occurred which warrant the granting of the application.

H. In determining whether the child has or has not achieved his or her permanency plan, the Department shall provide the court, and the court shall review, information related to any efforts to achieve the permanency plan including efforts to achieve adoption or a permanent guardianship.

I. 1. If the court conditionally grants the application under subsection G of this section, the case shall be continued for six (6) months and a temporary order of reinstatement of parental rights entered. During this period, the child shall be placed in the custody of the parent. The Department shall develop a permanency plan for the child reflecting the plan to be reunification and shall provide or ensure that transition services are provided to the family as appropriate.

2. If the child must be removed from the parent due to abuse or neglect allegations prior to the expiration of the conditional six month (6) period, the court shall dismiss the application for reinstatement of parental rights if the court finds the allegations have been proven by a preponderance of the evidence.

J. The court shall hold a hearing after the child has been placed with the parent for six (6) months. If the placement with the parent has been successful, the court shall enter a final order of reinstatement of parental rights, which shall restore all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations of the parent to the child, including those relating to custody, control, and support of the child. The court shall close the deprived action and direct the court clerk's office to provide a certified copy of the final order of reinstatement of parental rights to the parent at no cost.

K. A proceeding to reinstate parental rights is a separate action from the termination of parental rights proceeding and does not vacate the original termination of parental rights. An order granted under this section reinstates the parental rights to the child and acknowledges that the conditions of the parent and child have changed since the time of the termination of parental rights and that reunification is now appropriate.

L. This section is retroactive and shall apply to any child who is under the jurisdiction of the district court as a deprived child at the time of the hearing to reinstate parental rights regardless of the date when parental rights were terminated.

M. The prosecutor, the Department, and its employees are not liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission in providing services under this section unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence. This section does not create any duty and shall not be construed to create a duty where none exists. This section does not create a cause of action against the prosecutor, the Department, or its employees concerning the original order of termination of parental rights.

CHAPTER V. APPEALS

Section 1-5-101. Appeals

A. Any interested party aggrieved by any order or decree may appeal to the Court of Appeals pursuant to Section 1-5-103 of this Title and the rules of the Court of Appeals of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma.

B. The pendency of an appeal thus taken shall not suspend the order of the district court regarding a child, nor shall it remove the child from the custody of that court or of the person, institution or agency to whose care such child has been committed, unless the Court of Appeals shall so order, except as provided in Section 1-4-801 of this Title. The pendency of an appeal from an order of adjudication shall not prevent the district court from holding a dispositional hearing unless the appellate court shall so order.

Section 1-5-102. References to Child in Appellate Opinions

In Opinions of the Court of Appeals of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma in proceedings including, but not limited to, deprived, adoption, paternity proceedings, and other proceedings under this Title, the initial of the child's surname shall be used rather than the name of the child.

Section 1-5-103. Time for Filing Petition - Completion of Record - Briefing Schedule -

Expedited Adjudication of Appeal

A. All appeals of cases involving deprived or allegedly deprived children, including termination of parental rights, shall be initiated by filing a petition in error in the Court of Appeals within thirty (30) days of the order appealed from. The record on appeal shall be completed within sixty (60) days from the date of the order.

B. The briefing schedule is established as follows:

1. Appellant's brief in chief shall be filed twenty (20) days after the trial court clerk notifies all parties that the record is complete and such notice has been filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals;

2. Appellee's answer brief shall be filed fifteen (15) days after the appellant's brief in chief is filed; and

3. Appellant's reply brief may be filed within ten (10) days after the appellee's answer brief is filed.

C. 1. Adjudication of the appeals described in this section shall be expedited by the Court of Appeals, and a decision shall be rendered on a priority basis in all cases.

2. The term "priority basis" as used in this section means that a decision shall be filed within six (6) months from the date the briefing is completed.

E. When confidential records may be relevant in a criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding, an order of the court authorizing the inspection, release, disclosure, correction, or expungement of confidential records shall be entered by the court only after a judicial review of the records and a determination of necessity pursuant to the following procedure:

The court may shorten the time allowed for notice due to exigent circumstances;

3. The hearing may be closed at the discretion of the court; and

4. The judicial review of the records shall include a determination, with due regard for the confidentiality of the records and the privacy of persons identified in the records, as to whether an order should be entered authorizing the inspection, release, disclosure, correction, or expungement of the records based upon the need for the protection of a legitimate public or private interest.

F. The court may, for good cause shown, prohibit the release of such confidential records or testimony or authorize a release of the confidential information or testimony upon such conditions as the court deems necessary and appropriate, subject to the provisions of this section.

10. Prohibiting the Department from obtaining, without a court order, non-directory education records pertaining to a child in the legal custody of the Department.

Section 1-6-103. Inspection of Juvenile Court Records and Department of Children and Family Services Agency Records without Court Order

Section 1-10-304. Execution of Acknowledgment and Denial - Effective Date - Execution by Minors

A. An acknowledgment of paternity and a denial of paternity may be executed separately or simultaneously. If the acknowledgment and denial are both necessary, neither is valid until both are executed.

B. An acknowledgment of paternity or a denial of paternity may be signed before the birth of the child.

C. Subject to subsection A of this section, an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity takes effect on the birth of the child or the execution of the document, whichever occurs later.

D. An acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity signed by a minor is valid if it is otherwise in compliance with the Uniform Parentage Act.

Section 1-10-305. Effect of Acknowledgment or Denial

A. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 1-10-307 and 1-10-308 of this Act, a valid acknowledgment of paternity signed by both parents is equivalent to an adjudication of paternity of a child and confers upon the acknowledged father all of the rights and duties of a parent.

B. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 1-10-307 and 1-10-308 of this Act, a valid denial of paternity by a presumed father when executed in conjunction with a valid acknowledgment of paternity is equivalent to an adjudication of the non-paternity of the presumed father and discharges the presumed father from all rights and duties of a parent.

Section 1-10-306. Reserved

Section 1-10-307. Rescission of Acknowledgment or Denial

A. A signatory may sign a rescission of acknowledgment of paternity or sign a rescission of denial of paternity before the earlier of:

1. Sixty (60) days after the effective date of the acknowledgment; or
2. The date of the first hearing, in a proceeding to which the signatory is a party, before a court to adjudicate an issue relating to the child, including a proceeding that establishes support.

B. A signatory who was a minor at the time of execution of the acknowledgment may rescind an acknowledgment of paternity within sixty (60) days of reaching the age of eighteen.

Section 1-10-308. Proceeding to Challenge Acknowledgment or Denial - Commencement - Burden of Proof

A. After the period for rescission under Section 1-10-307 of this Act has expired, a signatory of an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity may commence a proceeding to challenge the acknowledgment or denial only:

1. On the basis of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact; and
2. Within two (2) years after the acknowledgment or denial is executed.

B. A party challenging an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity has the burden of proof, which shall be by clear and convincing evidence.

Section 1-10-309. Proceeding to Challenge Acknowledgment or Denial - Procedure

A. Every signatory to an acknowledgment of paternity and any related denial of paternity shall be made a party to a proceeding to challenge the acknowledgment or denial.

B. For the purpose of challenging an acknowledgment of paternity or a denial of paternity, a signatory submits to personal jurisdiction of this state by signing the acknowledgment or denial.

C. Except for good cause shown, during the pendency of a proceeding to challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity, the court shall not suspend the legal responsibilities of a signatory arising from the acknowledgment, including the duty to pay child support.

D. A proceeding to challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity shall be conducted in the same manner as a proceeding to adjudicate parentage under Article 1-10-601 of this Act.

E. At the conclusion of a proceeding to challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity, the court shall order the Oklahoma State Department of Health, Division of Vital Records, to amend the birth record of the child, if appropriate, pursuant to Title 12, Section 728 (2011) of the Oklahoma Statutes or any subsequent amendment thereto.

Section 1-10-310. Ratification of Unchallenged Acknowledgment Prohibited

Article 5. Genetic Testing

Section 1-10-501. Scope of Article

A. This article governs genetic testing of an individual to determine parentage, whether the individual:

1. Voluntarily submits to testing; or
2. Is tested pursuant to an order of the court or the Department of Children and Family Services.

Section 1-10-502. Order for Genetic Testing - Order for In Utero Testing not Allowed

A. In a civil action in which paternity is a relevant fact and at issue, except as otherwise provided in this Act, the court shall order the child and other designated individuals to submit to genetic testing if the request is made by a party to the proceeding to determine parentage.

B. The Department of Children and Family Services may order genetic testing only if there is no presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father.

C. If a request for genetic testing of a child is made before birth, the court or the Department of Children and Family Services may not order in utero testing.

D. If two or more men are subject to court-ordered genetic testing, the testing may be ordered concurrently or sequentially.

Section 1-10-503. Requirements of Testing - Objection to Calculation - Retesting

A. Genetic testing shall be of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the field of genetic testing and performed in a testing laboratory accredited by:

1. The American Association of Blood Banks, or a successor to its functions;
2. The American Society for Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics, or a successor to its functions; or
3. An accrediting body designated by the federal Secretary of Health and Human Services.

B. A specimen used in genetic testing may consist of one or more samples, or a combination of samples, of blood, buccal cells, bone, hair, or other body tissue or fluid. The specimen used in the testing need not be of the same kind for each individual undergoing genetic testing.

C. Based on the ethnic or racial group of an individual, the testing laboratory shall determine the databases from which to select frequencies for use in calculation of the probability of paternity. If there is disagreement as to the testing laboratory's choice, the following rules apply:

1. The individual objecting may require the testing laboratory, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the report of the test, to recalculate the probability of paternity using an ethnic or racial group different from that used by the laboratory;

2. The individual objecting to the testing laboratory's initial choice shall

a. if the frequencies are not available to the testing laboratory for the ethnic or racial group requested, provide the requested frequencies compiled on a manner recognized by accrediting bodies, or

b. engage another testing laboratory to perform the calculations; and

3. The testing laboratory may use its own statistical estimate if there is a question regarding which ethnic or racial group is appropriate. If available, the testing laboratory shall calculate the frequencies using statistics for any other ethnic or racial group requested.

D. If, after recalculation using a different ethnic or racial group, genetic testing does not conclusively identify a man as the father of a child under Section 1-10-505 of this Act, an individual who has been tested may be required to submit to additional genetic testing.

Section 1-10-504. Report of Testing - Chain of Custody

A. A report of genetic testing shall be in a record and signed under penalty of perjury by a designee of the testing laboratory. A report made under the requirements of this Act will be admitted as evidence of paternity without the need for foundation testimony or other proof of authenticity or accuracy.

B. Documentation from the testing laboratory of the following information is sufficient to establish a reliable chain of custody that allows the results of genetic testing to be admissible without testimony:

1. The names and photographs of the individuals whose specimens have been taken;
2. The names of the individuals who collected the specimens;
3. The places and dates the specimens were collected;
4. The names of the individuals who received the specimens in the testing laboratory; and
5. The dates the specimens were received.

Section 1-10-505. Identification of Father - Rebuttal

A. Under the Uniform Parentage Act, a man is rebuttably identified as the father of a child if the genetic testing complies with this Act and the results disclose that the man has:

1. At least a ninety-nine-percent probability of paternity, using a prior probability of 0.50, as calculated by using the combined paternity index obtained in the testing; and

2. A combined paternity index of at least 100 to 1.

B. A man identified under subsection A of this section as the father of the child may rebut the genetic testing results only by other genetic testing satisfying the requirements of this Act which:

1. Excludes the man as a genetic father of the child; or
2. Identifies another man as the possible father of the child.

C. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1-10-510 of this Act, if more than one man is identified by genetic testing as the possible father of the child, the court shall order them to submit to further genetic testing to identify the genetic father.

Section 1-10-506. Cost of Genetic Testing - Reimbursement of Costs Advanced by Department

A. Subject to assessment of costs under Article 6 of the Uniform Parentage Act,¹ the cost of initial genetic testing shall be advanced by the Department of Children and Family Services in a proceeding in which the Department is providing services.

B. In cases in which the Department of Children and Family Services is not providing services, the cost of initial genetic testing shall be advanced:

1. By the individual who made the request;
2. As agreed by the parties; or
3. As ordered by the court.

C. In cases in which the cost is advanced by the Department of Children and Family Services, the Department may seek reimbursement from a man who is identified as the father.

Section 1-10-507. Additional Testing of Man Previously Identified by Genetic Testing as Father

If the previous genetic testing identified a man as the father of the child under Section 1-10-505 the court or the Department of Children and Family Services may not order additional testing unless the party challenging the test provides advance payment for the testing.

Section 1-10-508. Others Who May Be When Testing Specimen is Unavailable from Man Who May be Father

A. Subject to subsection B of this section, if a genetic-testing specimen is not available from a man who may be the father of a child, for good cause and under circumstances the court considers to be just, the court may order the following individuals to submit specimens for genetic testing:

1. The parents of the man;
2. Brothers and sisters of the man;
3. Other children of the man and their mothers;
4. Other relatives of the man necessary to complete genetic testing; and
5. Any other custodians of genetic material.

B. Issuance of an order under this section requires a finding that a need for genetic testing outweighs the legitimate interests of the individual sought to be tested.

Section 1-10-509. Testing of a Deceased Individual

For good cause shown, the court may order genetic testing of a deceased individual.

Section 1-10-510. Identical Brothers - Testing - Non-Genetic Evidence to Determine Father

A. The court may order genetic testing of a brother of a man identified as the father of a child if the man is commonly believed to have an identical brother and evidence suggests that the brother may be the genetic father of the child.

B. If each brother satisfies the requirements as the identified father of the child under Section 1-10-505 of this Act, without consideration of another identical brother being identified as the father of the child, the court may rely on non-genetic evidence to adjudicate which brother is the father of the child.

Section 1-10-511. Release of Report of Genetic Testing

A. Except as otherwise authorized by law, all files and records concerning genetic testing are confidential. Release of information from the files and records shall be consistent with federal law and shall be restricted to purposes directly connected with the administration of the child support collection, paternity determination, parent location, or other public assistance programs. Information may be released to public officials under rules adopted by the Department, consistent with tribal law or by federal rules or regulations.

Article 6. Proceeding to Adjudicate Parentage

Part 1. Nature of Proceeding

Section 1-10-601. Civil Proceeding to Adjudicate Parentage

A civil proceeding may be maintained to adjudicate the parentage of a child. The proceeding is governed by the applicable rules prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma.

Section 1-10-602. Who May Maintain Proceeding to Adjudicate Parentage

A. Subject to Article 3 of the Uniform Parentage Act and Sections 1-10-607 and 1-10-609 of this Act, a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may be maintained by:

1. The child;
2. The mother of the child;
3. A man whose paternity of the child is to be adjudicated;
4. The Department of Children and Family Services; or
5. A representative authorized by law to act for an individual who would otherwise be entitled to maintain a proceeding but who is deceased, incapacitated, or a minor.

Section 1-10-603. Who May Be Joined

A. The following individuals may be joined as parties in a proceeding to adjudicate parentage:

1. The mother of the child; and
2. A man whose paternity of the child is to be adjudicated.

Section 1-10-604. Personal Jurisdiction

A. An individual may not be adjudicated to be a parent unless the court has personal jurisdiction over the individual.

B. A court of this state having jurisdiction to adjudicate parentage may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident individual who is Indian, or the guardian, or conservator of the individual, if the following conditions are fulfilled:

C. In a proceeding to establish or enforce a support order or to determine parentage, a tribunal of this state may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident individual or the individual's guardian or conservator if:

1. The individual is personally served with summons within this state;
2. The individual submits to the jurisdiction of this state by consent, by entering a general appearance, or by filing a responsive document having the effect of waiving any contest to personal jurisdiction;
3. The individual resided with the child in this state;
4. The individual resided in this state and provided prenatal expenses or support for the child;

5. The child resides in this state as a result of the acts or directives of the individual;
 6. The individual engaged in sexual intercourse in this state and the child may have been conceived by that act of intercourse;
 7. The individual asserted parentage in the putative father registry maintained in this state by the appropriate agency; or
 8. There is any other basis consistent with the constitutions of this state and the United States for the exercise of personal jurisdiction.
- C. Lack of jurisdiction over one individual does not preclude the court from making an adjudication of parentage binding on another individual over whom the court has personal jurisdiction.

Section 1-10-605. Venue

A. Venue for a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may be had in any county of the State of Oklahoma within the 10 ½ counties of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma where:

1. The child resides or is found;
2. The respondent resides or is found if the child does not reside in this state; or
3. A proceeding for probate or administration of the presumed or alleged father's estate has been commenced.

Section 1-10-606. Commencement of Proceeding - Child Attaining Adulthood - Earlier Proceeding

A. A proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having no presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father may be commenced at any time, even after:

1. The child becomes an adult, but only if the child initiates the proceeding; or
2. An earlier proceeding to adjudicate paternity has been dismissed based on the application of a statute of limitation then in effect.

Section 1-10-607. Limitation of Actions

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection B of this section, a proceeding brought by a presumed father, the mother, or another individual to adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed father shall be commenced not later than two (2) years after the birth of the child.

B. A proceeding seeking to disprove the father-child relationship between a child and the child's presumed father may be maintained at any time in accordance with Section 1-10-608 of this Title if the court, prior to an order disproving the father-child relationship, determines that:

1. The presumed father and the mother of the child neither cohabited nor engaged in sexual intercourse with each other during the probable time of conception; and

2. The presumed father never openly held out the child as his own.

C. A proceeding seeking to disprove the father-child relationship between a child and the child's presumed or acknowledged father may be maintained at any time if the court determines that the biological father, presumed or acknowledged father, and the mother agree to adjudicate the biological father's parentage in accordance with Sections 1-10-608 and 1-10-636 of This title. If the presumed or acknowledged father or mother is unavailable, the court may proceed if it is determined that diligent efforts have been made to locate the unavailable party and it would not be prejudicial to the best interest of the child to proceed without that party. In a proceeding under this section, the court shall enter an order either confirming the existing father-child relationship or adjudicating the biological father as the parent of the child. A final order under this section shall not leave the child without an acknowledged or adjudicated father.

Section 1-10-608. Circumstances Requiring and Effect of Denial of Motion for Genetic Testing - Factors - Incapacitated or Minor Child

A. In a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed father or to challenge the paternity of a child having an acknowledged father, the court shall deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing of the mother, the child, and the presumed or acknowledged father if the court determines that:

1. The conduct of the mother or the presumed or acknowledged father estops that party from denying parentage; and

2. It would be contrary to the child's best interests to disprove the father-child relationship between the child and the presumed or acknowledged father.

B. In determining whether to deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing under this section, the court shall consider the best interest of the child, including the following factors:

1. The length of time between the proceeding to adjudicate parentage and the time that the presumed or acknowledged father was placed on notice that he might not be the genetic father;

2. The length of time during which the presumed or acknowledged father has assumed the role of father of the child;

3. The facts surrounding the presumed or acknowledged father's discovery of his possible non-paternity;

4. The nature of the relationship between the child and the presumed or acknowledged father;

5. The age of the child;

6. The harm that may result to the child if presumed or acknowledged paternity is successfully disproved;

7. The nature of the relationship between the child and any alleged father;
 8. The extent to which the passage of time reduces the chances of establishing the paternity of another man and a child-support obligation in favor of the child; and
 9. Other factors that may affect the equities arising from the disruption of the father-child relationship between the child and the presumed or acknowledged father or the chance of other harm to the child.
- C. In a proceeding involving the application of this section, a minor or incapacitated child shall be represented by a guardian ad litem.
- D. If the court denies a motion seeking an order for genetic testing, it shall issue an order adjudicating the presumed or acknowledged father to be the father of the child.

Section 1-10-609. Time Limitation for Commencing Proceeding - Signatory to Acknowledgement of Paternity - Others

- A. If a child has an acknowledged father, a signatory to the acknowledgment of paternity may commence a proceeding seeking to challenge the paternity of the child only within the time allowed under Sections 1-10-307 or 1-10-308 of this Title.
- B. If a child has an acknowledged father or an adjudicated father, an individual, other than the child, who is neither a signatory to the acknowledgment of paternity nor a party to the adjudication and who seeks an adjudication of paternity of the child shall commence a proceeding not later than two (2) years after the effective date of the acknowledgment or adjudication.
- C. A proceeding under this section is subject to the application of Section 1-10-308 of this Title.

Section 1-10-610. Joinder of Proceedings

- A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection B of this section, a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may be joined with a proceeding for adoption, termination of parental rights, child custody, or visitation, child support, dissolution of marriage, annulment, legal separation, probate or administration of an estate, or other appropriate proceeding.
- B. A respondent may not join a proceeding described in subsection A of this section with a proceeding to adjudicate parentage brought under a provision of the Choctaw Nation Statutes for the enforcement of support orders or income-withholding orders issued by a tribunal of another state and registered in the Choctaw Nation for enforcement.

Section 1-10-611. Commencement of Proceedings before Birth of Child - Actions that May be Taken before Child's Birth

- A. A proceeding to determine parentage may be commenced before the birth of the child, but may not be concluded until after the birth of the child. The following actions may be taken before the birth of the child:

1. Service of process;
2. Discovery; and
3. Except as prohibited by Section 1-10-502 of this Title, collection of specimens for genetic testing.

Section 1-10-612. Child Not Necessary Party - Guardian Ad Litem

A. A minor child is a permissible party, but is not a necessary party to a proceeding under this Article.

B. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent a minor or incapacitated child if the child is a party or the court finds that the interests of the child are not adequately represented.

Part 2. Special Rules for Proceeding to Adjudicate Parentage

Section 1-10-621. Admissibility of Records - Genetic Testing Experts - Admissibility of Results of Genetic Testing and Copies of Bills

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection C of this section, a record of a genetic-testing expert is admissible as evidence of the truth of the facts asserted in the report unless a party objects to its admission within fourteen (14) days after its mailing and cites specific grounds for exclusion. The admissibility of the report is not affected by whether the testing was performed:

1. Voluntarily or pursuant to an order of the court or the Department of Children and Family Services; or
2. Before or after the commencement of the proceeding.

B. A party objecting to the results of genetic testing may call one or more genetic-testing experts to testify in person or by telephone, videoconference, deposition, or another method approved by the court. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the party offering the testimony bears the expense for the expert testifying.

C. If a child has a presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father, the results of genetic testing are inadmissible to adjudicate parentage unless performed pursuant to an order of the court under Sections 1-10-502 and 1-10-608 of this Title.

D. Copies of bills for genetic testing and for prenatal and postnatal health care for the mother and child which are furnished to the adverse party not less than ten (10) days before the date of a hearing are admissible to establish:

1. The amount of the charges billed; and
2. That the charges were reasonable, necessary, and customary.

Section 1-10-622. Contempt of Testing Order - Refusal to Submit to Testing - Failure to Answer or Appear - Testing of Mother

A. An order for genetic testing is enforceable by contempt.

B. If an individual whose paternity is being determined declines to submit to genetic testing ordered by the court, the court for that reason may adjudicate parentage contrary to the position of that individual.

C. If a defendant fails to answer, or to appear for hearing or genetic testing after being ordered to appear, and all other duly served defendants have been excluded as possible fathers by genetic testing, the court shall enter an order establishing the defendant who failed to answer or appear as the father.

D. Genetic testing of the mother of a child is not a condition precedent to testing the child and a man whose paternity is being determined. If the mother is unavailable or declines to submit to genetic testing, the court may order the testing of the child and every man whose paternity is being adjudicated.

Section 1-10-623. Admission of Paternity

A. A respondent in a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may admit to the paternity of a child by filing a pleading to that effect or by admitting paternity under penalty of perjury when making an appearance or during a hearing.

B. If the court finds that the admission of paternity satisfies the requirements of this section and finds that there is no reason to question the admission, the court shall issue an order adjudicating the child to be the child of the man admitting paternity.

Section 1-10-624. Temporary Order for Support - Custody and Visitation

A. In a proceeding under this Article, the court shall issue a temporary order for support of a child if the order is appropriate and the individual ordered to pay support is:

1. A presumed father of the child;
2. Petitioning to have his paternity adjudicated;
3. Identified as the father through genetic testing under Section 1-10-505 of this Title;
4. An alleged father who has declined to submit to genetic testing;
5. Shown by clear and convincing evidence to be the father of the child; or
6. The mother of the child.

B. A temporary order may include provisions for custody and visitation as provided by other law of this state.

Part 3. Hearings and Adjudications

Section 1-10-631. Rules to Adjudicate Paternity of a Child

A. The court shall apply the following rules to adjudicate the paternity of a child:

1. The paternity of a child having a presumed, acknowledged, or adjudicated father may be disproved only by admissible results of genetic testing excluding that man as the father of the child or identifying another man as the father of the child;

2. Unless the results of genetic testing are admitted to rebut other results of genetic testing, a man identified as the father of a child under Section 1-10-505 of this Title shall be adjudicated the father of the child;

3. If the court finds that genetic testing under Section 1-10-505 of this Title neither identifies nor excludes a man as the father of a child, the court may not dismiss the proceeding. In that event, the results of genetic testing, and other evidence, are admissible to adjudicate the issue of paternity; and

4. Unless the results of genetic testing are admitted to rebut other results of genetic testing, a man excluded as the father of a child by genetic testing shall be adjudicated not to be the father of the child.

Section 1-10-632. Court Shall Adjudicate Paternity

A. The court, without a jury, shall adjudicate paternity of a child.

Section 1-10-633. Close of Proceedings - Availability of Final Order and other Papers and Records

A. On request of a party and for good cause shown, the court may close a proceeding under this Article.

B. A final order in a proceeding under this Article is available for public inspection. Once a proceeding is closed under this Article, other papers and records are available only with the consent of the parties or on order of the court for good cause.

Section 1-10-634. Order Adjudicating Paternity - When Issued

A. The court shall issue an order adjudicating the paternity of a man who:

1. After service of process, is in default; and
2. Is found by the court to be the father of a child.

Section 1-10-635. Dismissal for Want of Prosecution must be Without Prejudice

A. The court may issue an order dismissing a proceeding commenced under the Uniform Parentage Act for want of prosecution only without prejudice. An order of dismissal for want of prosecution purportedly with prejudice is void and has only the effect of a dismissal without prejudice.

Section 1-10-636. Orders - Assessment of Fees and Costs - Child's Surname - Amended Birth Certificate

A. The court shall issue an order adjudicating whether a man alleged or claiming to be the father is the parent of the child.

B. An order adjudicating parentage shall identify the child by name and date of birth.

C. Except as otherwise provided in subsection D of this section, the court may assess filing fees, reasonable attorney fees, fees for genetic testing, other costs, and necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in a proceeding under this Article. The court may award attorney fees, which may be paid directly to the attorney, who may enforce the order in the attorney's own name.

D. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses against the Department of Children and Family Services or an agency of another state designated to administer a statewide plan for child support in accordance with Title IV, Part D, of the Federal Social Security Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C., Section 651 et seq., except as provided by other law.

E. If both the mother and the father agree to change the surname of the child to that of the father, the court may order that the name be changed.

F. If the order of the court is at variance with the child's birth certificate, the court shall order the Oklahoma State Department of Health, Division of Vital Records to issue an amended birth registration pursuant to Title 12, Section 728 of the Oklahoma Statutes (2011) or any subsequent statutory provision.

Section 1-10-637. Upon Whom Determination of Parentage is Binding - Other Proceedings - Defensive Use - Appeals

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsection B of this Section, a determination of parentage is binding on:

1. All signatories to an acknowledgment or denial of paternity as provided in Article 3 of the Uniform Parentage Act 1; and

2. All parties to an adjudication by a court acting under circumstances that satisfy the jurisdictional requirements of Section 1-10-604(B) of this Title.

B. A child is not bound by a determination of parentage under the Uniform Parentage Act unless;

1. The determination was based on an unrescinded acknowledgment of paternity and the acknowledgment is consistent with the results of genetic testing;

2. The adjudication of parentage was based on a finding consistent with the results of genetic testing and the consistency is declared in the determination or is otherwise shown; or

3. The child was a party or was represented in the proceeding determining parentage by an attorney or guardian ad litem.

C. In a proceeding to dissolve a marriage, the court is deemed to have made an adjudication of the parentage of a child if the court acts under circumstances that satisfy the jurisdictional requirements of Section 1-10-604(B) of this Title and the final order:

1. Expressly identifies a child as a “child of the marriage,” “issue of the marriage,” or similar words indicating that the husband is the father of the child; or
2. Provides for support of the child by the husband unless paternity is specifically disclaimed in the order.

D. Except as otherwise provided in subsection B of this section, a determination of parentage may be a defense in a subsequent proceeding seeking to adjudicate parentage by an individual who was not a party to the earlier proceeding.

E. A party to an adjudication of paternity may challenge the adjudication only under law of this state relating to appeal, vacation of judgments, or other judicial review.

Until otherwise ordered by a court, written agreements, preferably agreements that are the result of mediation, are encouraged to document the scope of the legal and physical custody of the respective parents.

Chapter XI. Kinship Guardianship Assistance Program

Section 1-11-101. Eligibility

A. A child is eligible for a kinship guardianship assistance payment if the Department determines that:

1. the child has been:
 - a. removed from his or her home pursuant to a voluntary placement agreement or as a result of a judicial determination to the effect that continuation in the home would be contrary to the welfare of the child; and
 - b. eligible for foster care maintenance payments while residing for at least six consecutive months in the home of the prospective relative guardian;
2. being returned home or adopted are not appropriate permanency options for the child;

2. Kinship guardianship assistance payments may be paid on behalf of each sibling so placed.

Section 1-11-102. Payments

A. The Department shall provide kinship guardianship assistance payments on behalf of children to grandparents and other relatives who assume legal guardianship of the child for whom they have cared as foster parents and for whom they have committed to care on a permanent basis.

B. A kinship guardianship assistance payment on behalf of a child shall not exceed the foster care maintenance payment which would have been paid on behalf of the child if the child had remained in a foster family home.

C. Payments are terminated when the Department determines that:

1. the child has attained the age of 18;
2. the child has attained 21 years of age, and the child has a mental or physical disability which warrants the continuation of assistance to age 21;

3. the child has not attained 18 years of age, and the relative guardians are no longer legally responsible for the support of the child; or

4. the child is no longer receiving any support from the relative guardians.

D. The relative guardians are required to inform the Department of circumstances that would make them ineligible for guardianship assistance payments or eligible for guardianship assistance payments in a different amount.

Section 1-11-103. Agreements

A. The Department shall:

1. negotiate and enter into a written, binding kinship guardianship assistance agreement with the prospective relative guardian of a child who meets the requirements; and

2. provide the prospective relative guardian with a copy of the agreement.

B. The agreement must specify, at a minimum:

1. the amount of, and manner in which, each kinship guardianship assistance payment will be provided under the agreement, and the manner in which the payment may be adjusted periodically, in consultation with the relative guardian, based on the circumstances of the relative guardian and the needs of the child;

2. the additional services and assistance that the child and relative guardian will be eligible for under the agreement;

3. the procedure by which the relative guardian may apply for additional services as needed;

4. that the Department will pay the total cost of nonrecurring expenses associated with obtaining legal guardianship of the child, to the extent the total cost does not exceed $2,000; and

5. that the agreement shall remain in effect without regard to the Tribal service area residency of the relative guardian.

Section 1-11-104. Safety

The Department shall provide procedures for criminal records checks, including fingerprint-based checks of national crime information, on any relative guardian and any other adult living in the home of any relative guardian before the relative guardian may receive kinship guardianship assistance payments on behalf of the child under this plan option.

Section 1-11-105. Case Plan Requirements

A. For a child with respect to whom the permanency plan is placement with a relative and receipt of kinship guardian assistance payments, the Department shall include in the case plan a description of:

1. the steps that the agency has taken to determine that it is not appropriate for the child to be returned home or adopted;

2. the reasons for any separation of siblings during placement;
3. the reasons why a permanent placement with a fit and willing relative through a kinship guardianship assistance arrangement is in the child's best interests;
4. the ways in which the child meets the eligibility requirements for a kinship guardianship assistance payment;
5. the efforts the Department has made to discuss adoption by the child's relative foster parent as a more permanent alternative to legal guardianship and, in the case of a relative foster parent who has chosen not to pursue adoption, documentation of the reasons; and
6. the efforts made by the Department to discuss with the child's parent or parents the kinship guardianship assistance arrangement, or the reasons why the efforts were not made.
